'To Live Is To Change . . . To Become Perfect

"To live is to change." For the Christian, to live is to change in Christ. To change in Christ is ultimately a summons to perfection for "to become perfect is to have changed often." (Cardinal Newman)

This call to change has reverberated through the centuries. It resounded in the mighty wind of the first Pentecost; in the triumphant cry, "God wills it!" of the Crusaders; in the "restore all things in Christ" of Pope Pius X; and it is echoed in the "aggiornamento" of Pope John XXIII. Our own country has vibrated with its call in the determined cry of "we shall overcome."

As students educated in a Catholic high school, we are obliged to share in this change. If we have talents, they must not be hidden; if we have abundance, we must be merciful; if we have skill, we must share it with our neighbors. United in charity which is the bond of brotherhood, we must go forth secure in our unity of purposes and convinced that to live is to change in Christ.

People Of God

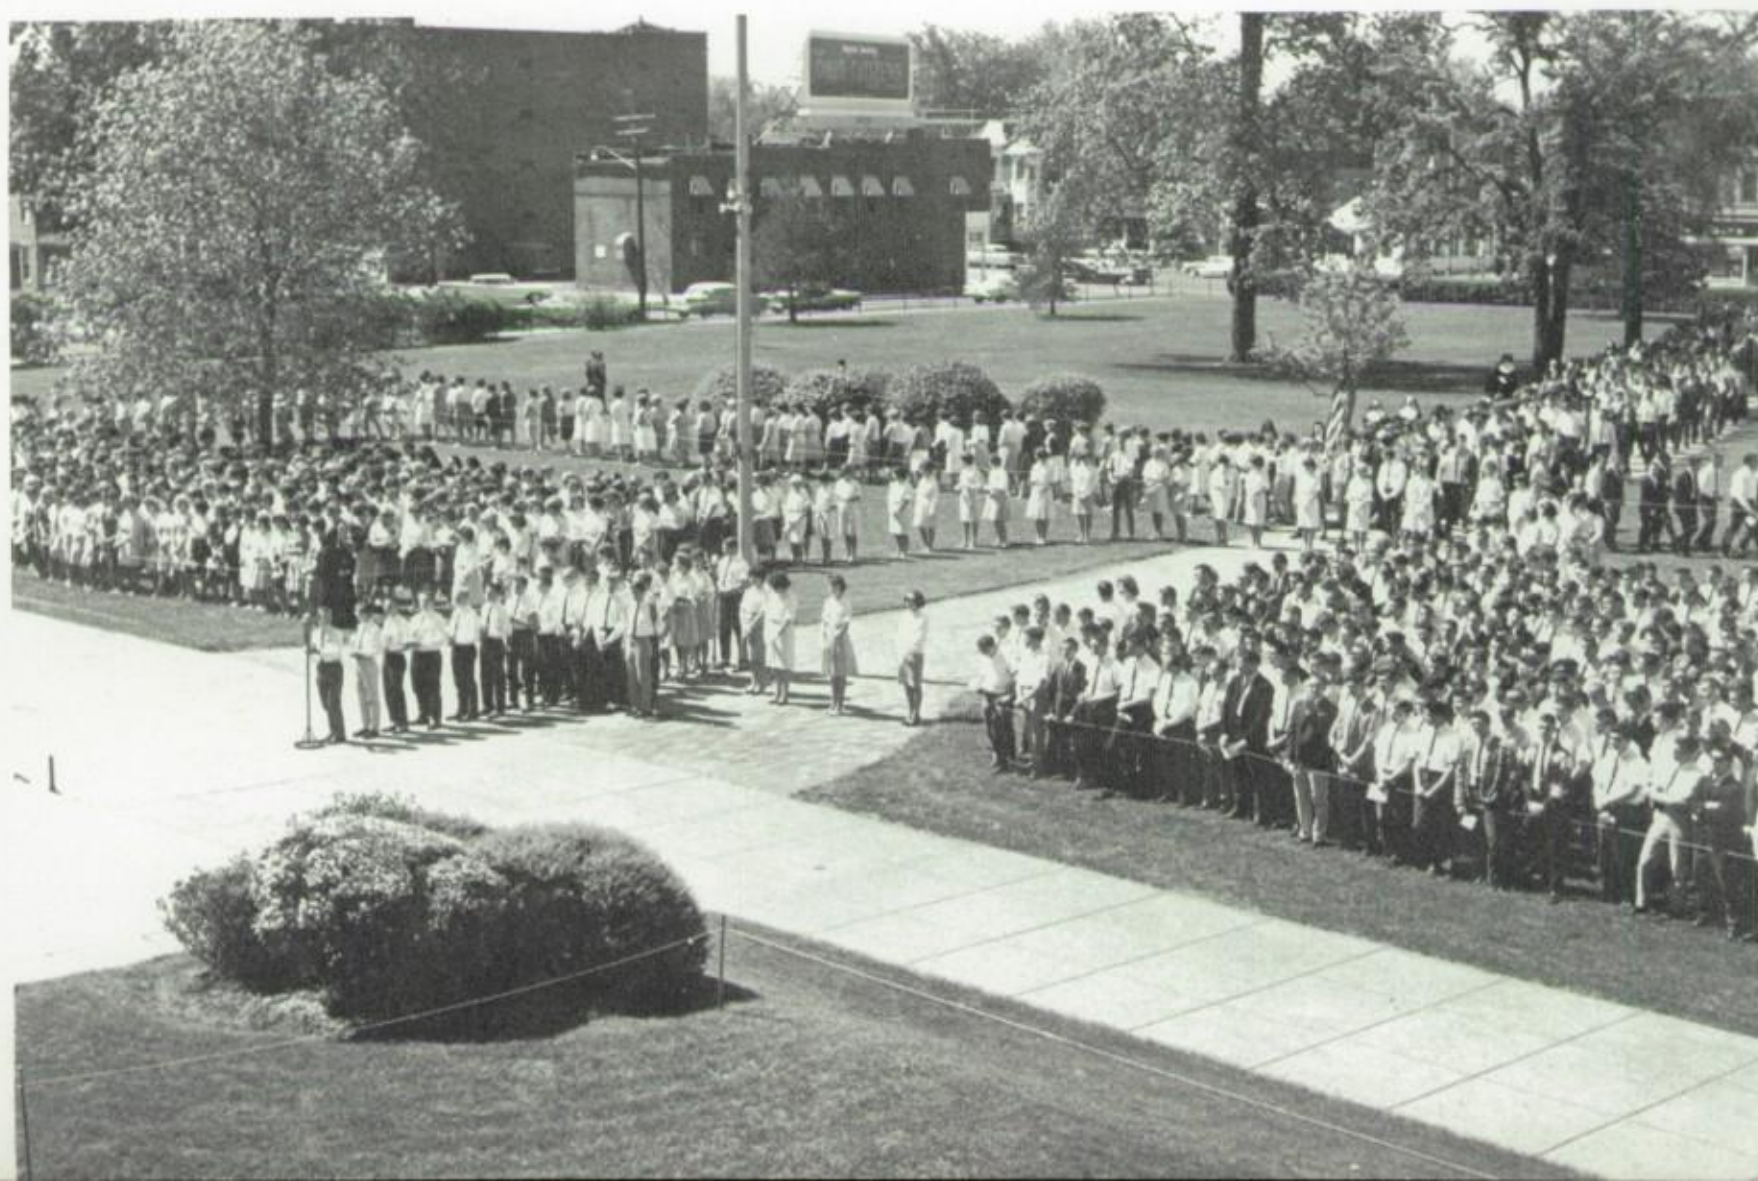

" . . . here on earth, God's work must truly be our own." The words of President Kennedy; the thought of the Universal Church.

This concept is articulated for us, today, in the direction given us by Bishop George J. Rehring. As our Shepherd he guides the People of God of the Toledo Diocese in an era of unprecedented, unpredictable change toward a fuller Christ-life.

This thought is exemplified for us in the thirty-eight years of devoted service to Central of our late and beloved Mr. Valentine Fischer. "A school is great because of its faculty. If the teachers are men and women of loyalty, dedication, and learning, the school will prosper and the students will benefit greatly. Val Fischer was such a teacher. He loved Central and its students. He was faithful to his vocation as a teacher and endeavored to give his students the best that he had." (Msgr. Harrington)

Attendance, Guidance Staffs Perform Necessary Services

Sr. M. Cleopha OSF, with one of her assistants, Dorothy Cousino, sees that an accurate account of each student's attendance is kept.

Directed by Mrs. Velma Pfeiffer, guidance counselor, Sr. Mary of Mercy RSM, Sr. M. Dolore SND, Sr. M. Florence OSF, Mr. Daniel Piloseno, Sr. M. Jane Francis RSM, and Sr. M. Winifred OSF, work with students on their educational and vocational problems.

The main office, the center of all the school clerical functions, is efficiently run by Miss Rose Fackelman, clerk; Mrs. Margaret McIlhargie, switchboard operator; and Miss Loretta McCarthy, registrar.

Like all those in need of medical assistance Bernie Ragle and Chris Cline are aided by Mrs. Lillian Wroe, school nurse.

CLASSES

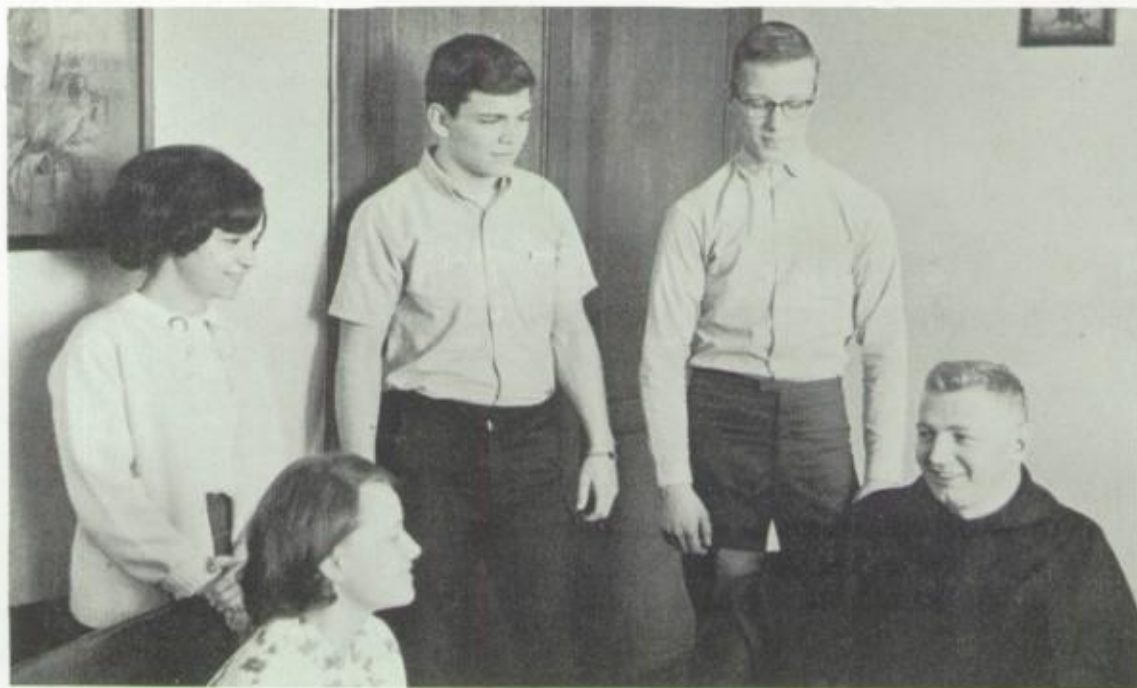

"Through Him, and with Him, and in Him." With the words of Holy Mass urging us, we endeavor each day to grow towards full maturity in Christ. Through the creativities of the Arts, the discoveries of the Sciences, our classes aim at that discipline of mind and body and spirit which transforms our ignorance into knowledge, our capacities into abilities, our impulses into ideals.

Retreat 1965

Under the spiritual guidance of Father Juniper Cummings OFM. Conv. and Father Karl Chesher OFM. Conv., Centralites received the opportunity to advance in spiritual growth. This year's retreat, January 27-29, initiated the mixed conferences; juniors and seniors following one schedule and freshman and sophomores another. Both Franciscan Fathers stood on a firm foundation of retreat work: Father Chesher, director of Retreats at the National Shrine of Our Lady of Consolation, and Father Cummings, Rector of Our Lady of Carey Seminary College. The daily schedule included sermons, Mass and private devotions.

Central's reception committee, consisting of Lonna Carcus, Kathleen Curto, Craig Frankowski, and Garry Wasielewski, join with Father Juniper Cummings OFM. Conv. in taking a few minutes from retreat routine to relax in a friendly discussion. Here students express their enthusiasm concerning the novel arrangement of mixed conferences. All participating hope to follow this schedule next year.

The Sacrifice of Calvary is re-enacted in Central's gym as the students join together at Mass to give thanks for the blessings conferred on the school throughout the year.

Seniors Theresa Colisino, Donald Boes, Mary Ellen Ignasiak, Barbara Zielinski, and John Wozny welcome Father Karl Chesher OFM. Conv. into Central's large family of retreat masters.

In the freshman year "Our Quest For Happiness" text focuses on God the Father; sophomore year on Christ the Incarnate Son; junior year, God the Holy Ghost and terminating the course in senior year with Our Triune God. Seniors, Lawrence Slagle, Michael Calkins, and John Pacer ask Father Jude to untangle some misconceptions they had while studying Apologetics.

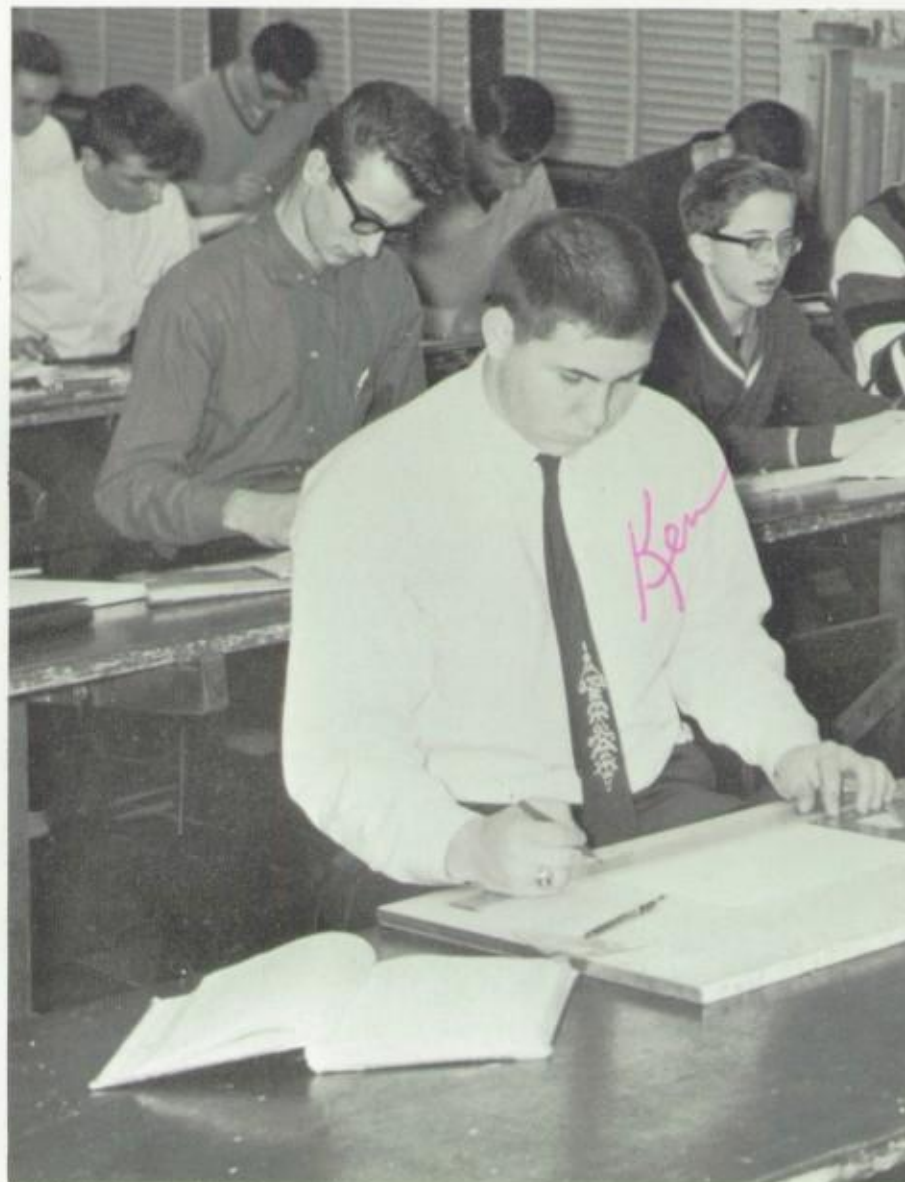

Religion Offers Guide Light to Students

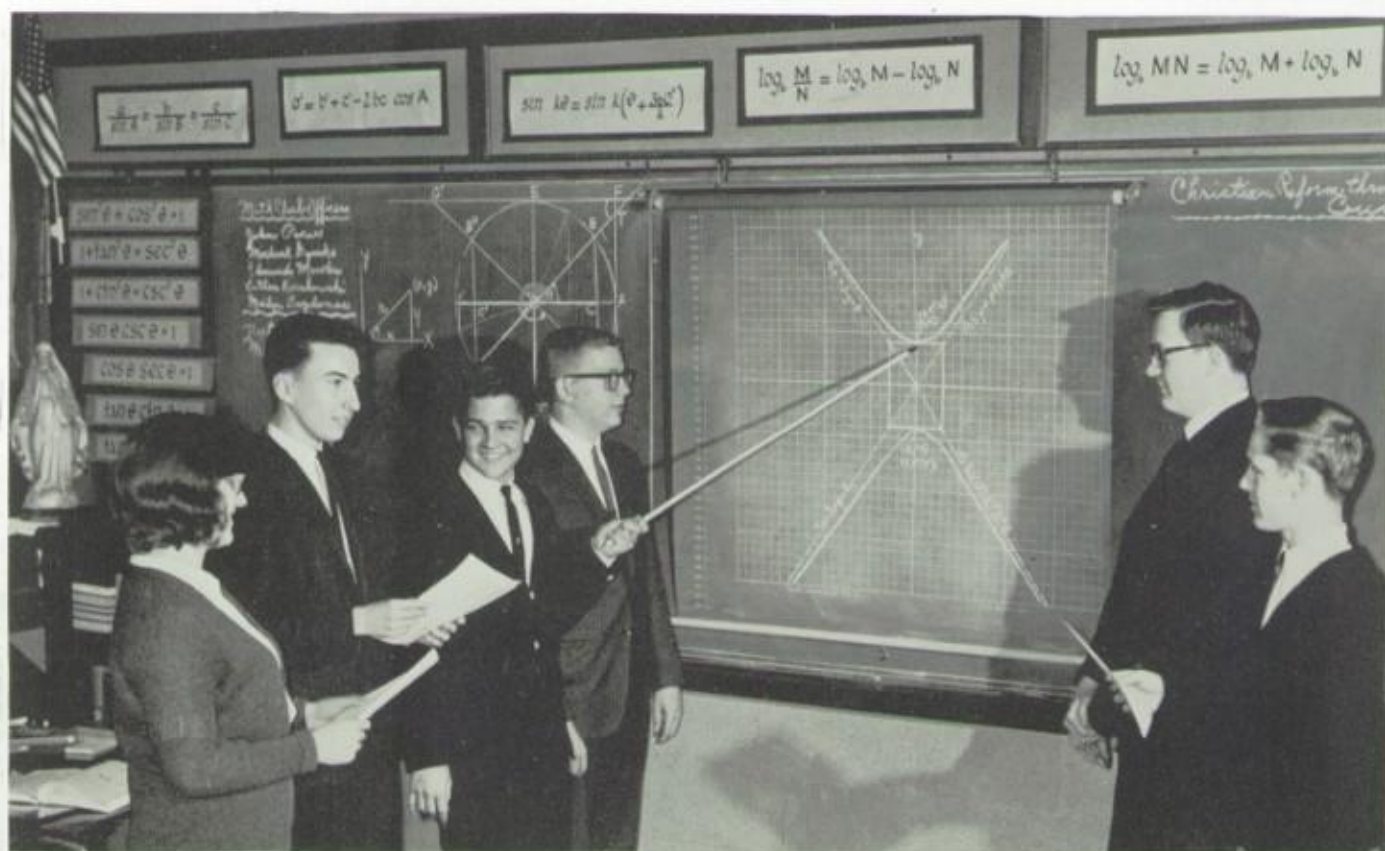

While senior girls get a head start on their homework assignment, Father Thomas Beauregard attempts to clarify a hazy idea Elaine Higgins has formed during this year's study of modern social problems.

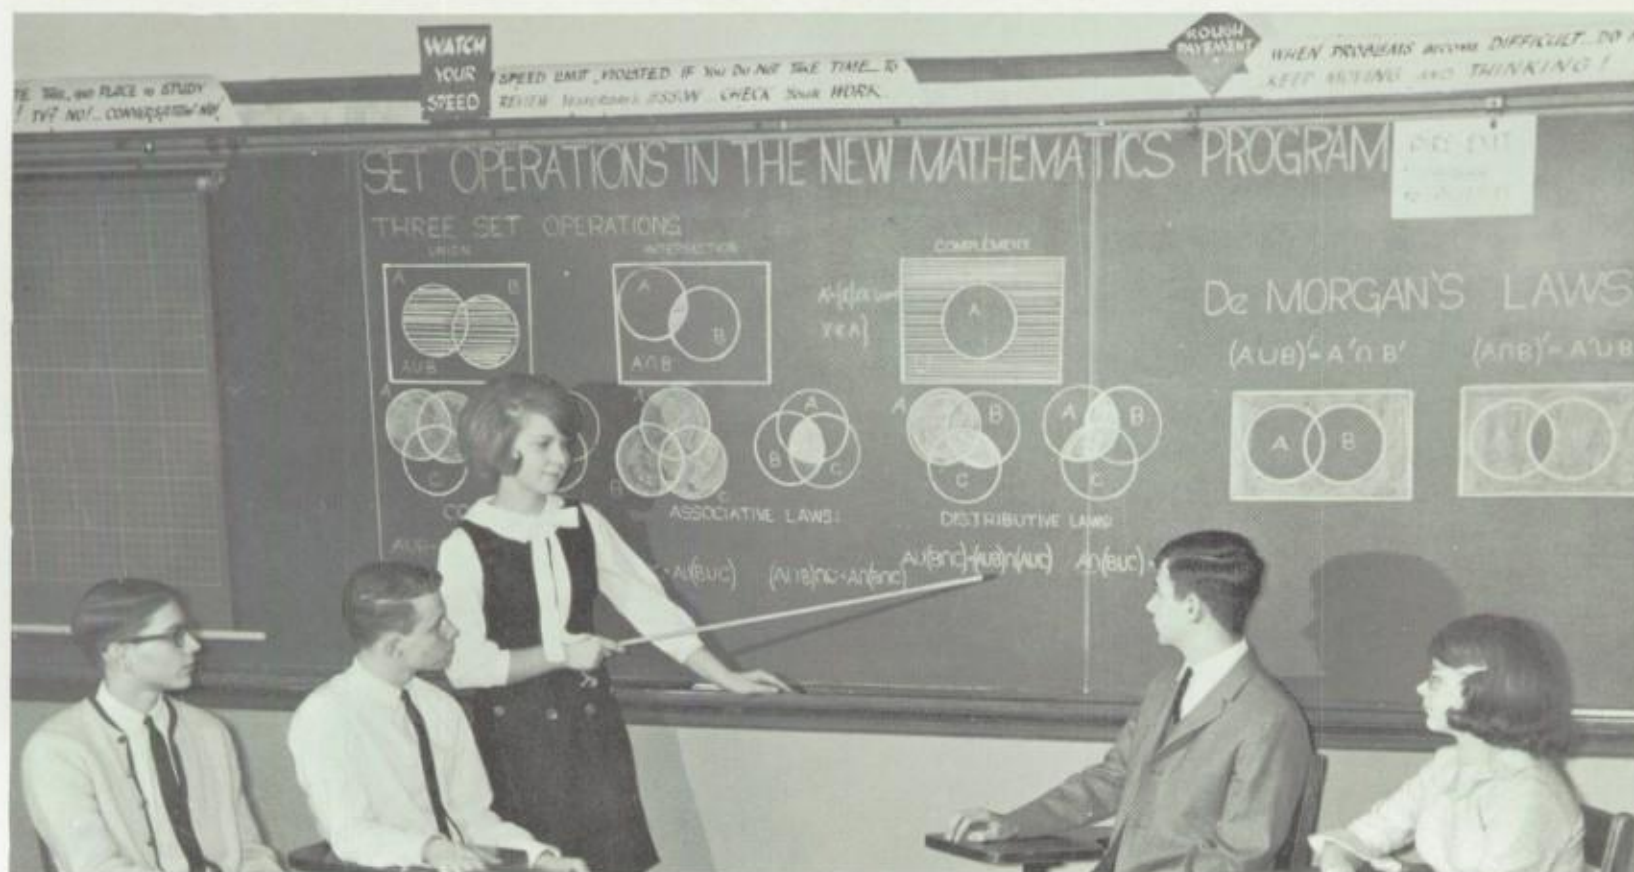

Study Plus Perseverance Equal Success

Drafting stresses the basic fundamentals of technical drawing. Lettering techniques, freehand sketching, scaling, and engineering are learned by future mechanical draftsmen.

Advanced algebra introduces students to logarithms, binomial theorems, the use of the slide rule, and the elementary theorem of equations. They are also offered a course in trigonometry which plays an important part in the field of mathematical analysis. Mary Syvert, Jay Kowalski, John Woll, Thomas Koralewski, Thomas Zawodny, and James Muszynski analyze a graph.

Algebra is a form of mathematics which deals with the relations and properties of numbers by means of letters, and other symbols, including solution of equations and continued fractions. Learning the operations of De Morgan's Laws are William Hoover, Dennis Degnan, Janet Olczak, Ronald Nirschl, and Marilyn Carr.

Learning the fundamentals of plane and solid geometry is the main purpose of second year math students. During the year they investigate the relations, properties, and measurements of solids, surfaces, lines, and angles. As in other math courses, the students are given a chance to develop powers of logical thinking.

The function of the kidney is one of the topics answered in physiology. Karen Rydman explains the structure of the organ while Theresa Kurek indicates its location. Karen Kirk, Kathleen LaScola, Mary Ann Adamczyk, and Patricia Berkel listen attentively.

In the biology lab, Rose Marie Bettinger, Ethel Wawrzyniak, Gloria Ochmanek, and Ann Fabiszak separate chloroplast pigments by means of chromatographic techniques. Examining the plants are Mary Lou Hough, Linda Valigosky, and Susan Varwig under the supervision of Sr. M. Stephanie.

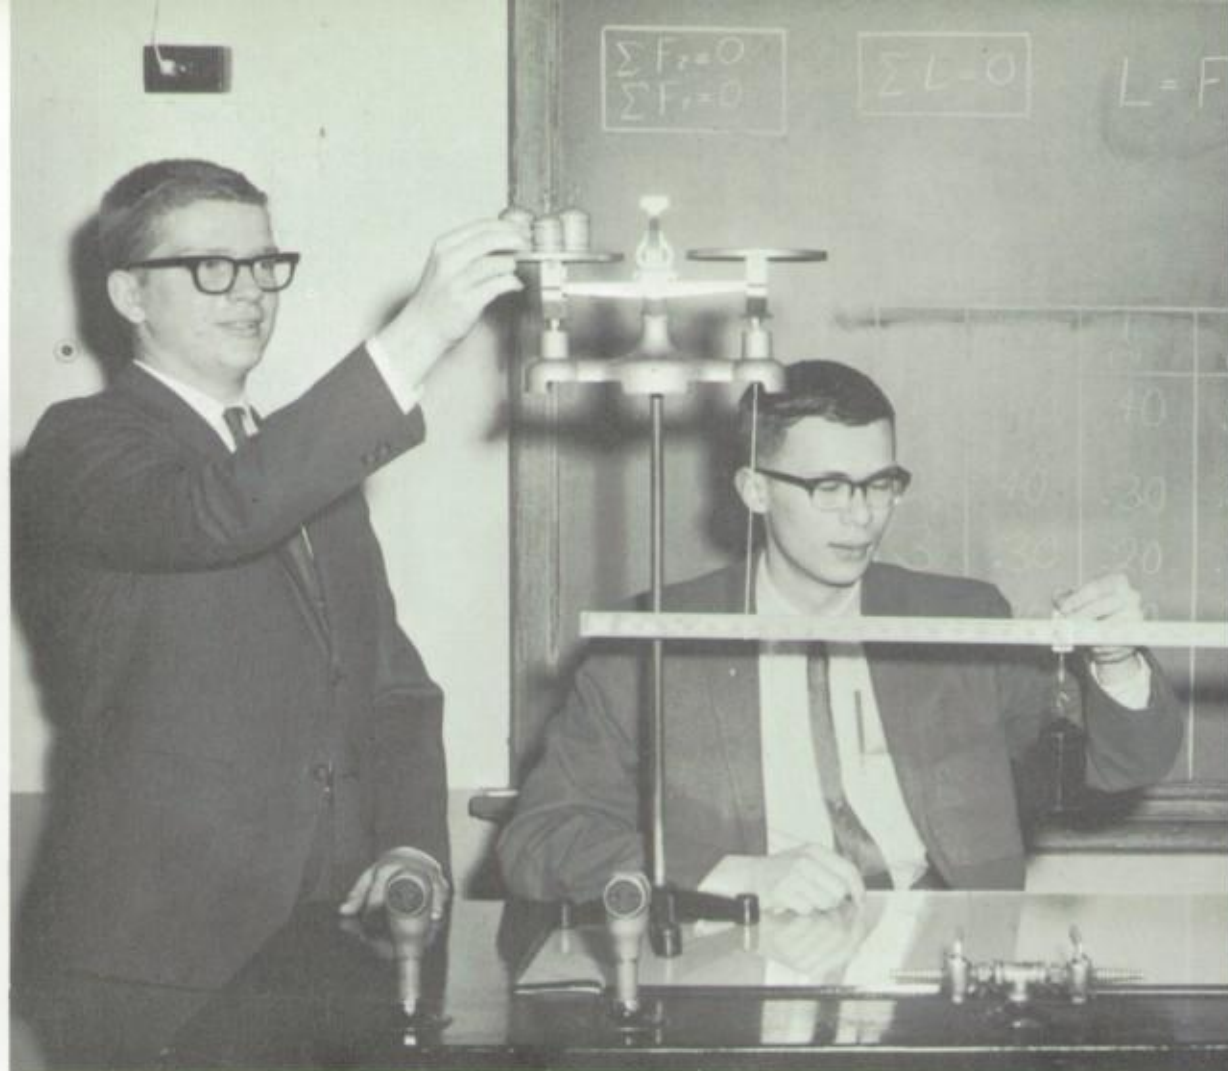

Exploring the World Through Science

Part of the general science course is devoted to projects requiring research. Explaining her topic, "The American Saddlebred", Denise DeShetler discusses the characteristics of the horse and how it is trained for riding. The exhibition catches the interest of Clement Dombrowski, James Jagodzinski, Janice Oleksiak.

Biology is a key enabling students to open the door to many new and interesting fields. Bacteriology is one of these keys to knowledge. Future scientists learn about the effects of bacteria from cultures of these micro-organisms.

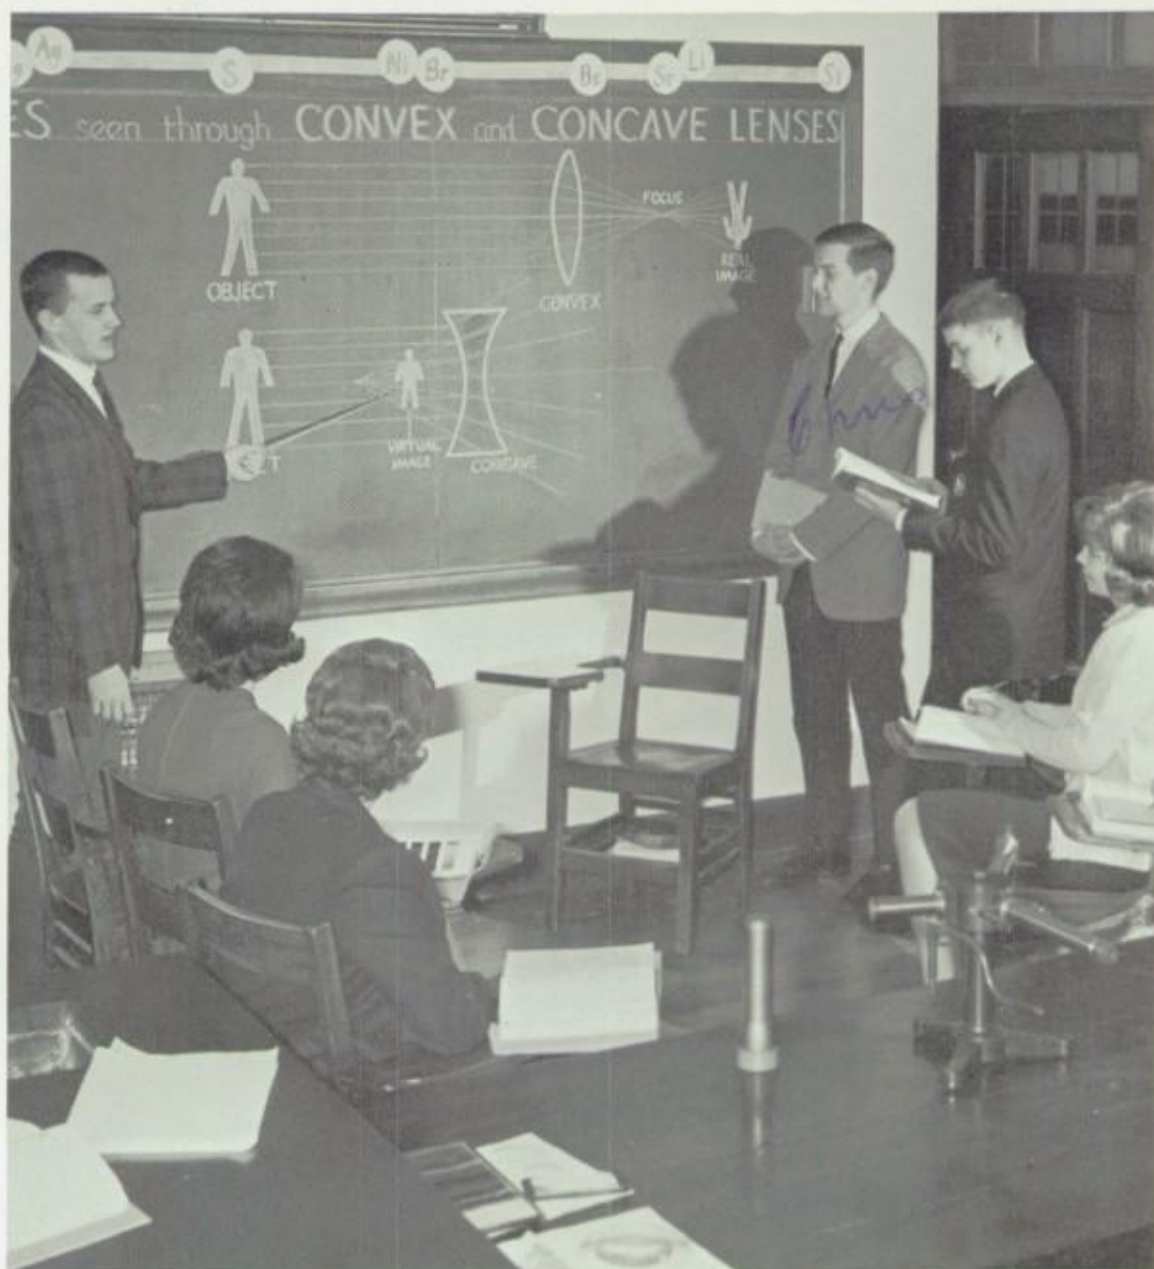

Familiar to physics students are the properties of matter and energy in the fields of mechanics and acoustics. Thomas Koralowski and Edward Mowka establish the equilibrium of the focus applied to the apparatus while John Woll records the results. The principles demonstrated may be utilized in many mechanical problems.

Centralites Delve Into Mysteries

In the physics laboratory Joseph Worketter used Pascal's Vase apparatus to demonstrate the equality of pressure at the bottom of fluid columns of equal height. John Woll offers assurance of no experimental errors by watching the gauge.

of Science

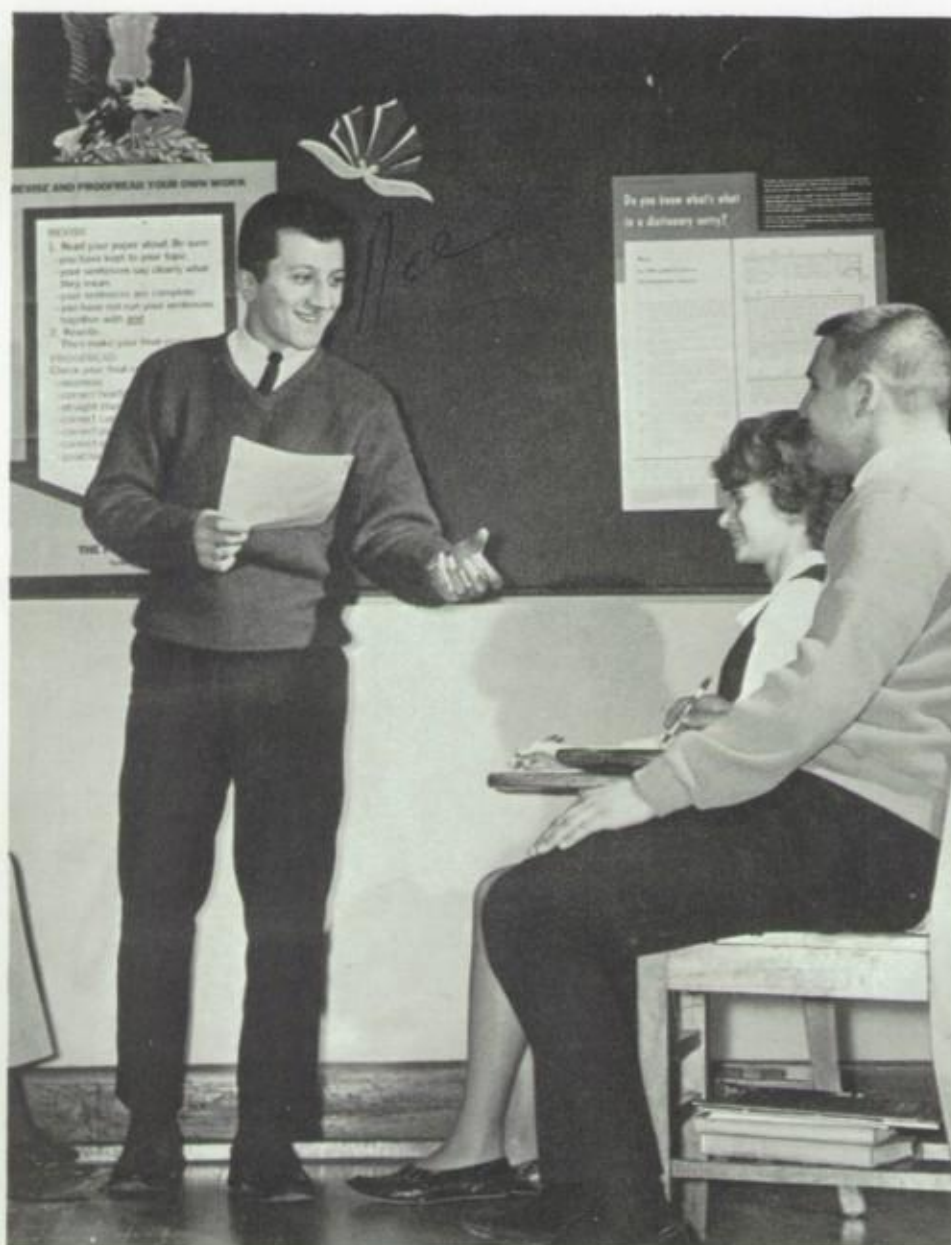

Physical science is a basic course that shows the interrelation of physics, chemistry, geology, astronomy and meteorology. In the field of physics, John Kepus explains the concave lens and virtual image to Eileen Dillon, Patricia Walasinski and Mary Olczak. While John McHugh checks a reference, Christopher Hunter waits to explain convex lenses and the real image to the group.

Theoretical knowledge is tested by practical application in the chemistry laboratory. Through experiments, student chemists learn about elements, their properties, structure and reactions. Determining the gram-molecular weight of a compound is Mary Hawkins. Dennis Marsh weighs copper filings while Kathleen O'Loughlin lights the Bunson burner. At Albin Marczak's nod of approval, Mary Seitz adds sulfur to the copper filings.

To spark the fire of interest in American and English authors, panel discussions are incorporated into the sophomore English classes. Whether the author is Poe, Kipling, Sandburg, Shakespeare or Tennyson, he will find an enthusiastic welcome from these students. Pictured are: Frances Drouillard, Becky Kleuber, Ted Novak, Tom Holt and Anna Macke.

"The pen is mightier than the sword." Senior students in English composition learn to express their thoughts in a clear and interesting manner. Exchanging ideas on the style of a theme are Ken Marciniak, Marcia Siwajck and Tim Holt.

"Friends, Romans, Countrymen, lend me your ears!" David Kolodziejczyk, one of Mr. Richard's students, finds that golden tongued oratory is mastered only with practice. The class is publicspeaking is but one of the courses included under the general heading of language arts.

To complete the requirements in English, seniors may elect journalism, composition, or Survey of English Literature. These students have chosen the latter. Pope's Rape of the Lock is given a modern touch by Patrick Rafferty as he snips a lock of Lorraine Kotlewski's hair. Carolyn Jasinski and John Gardner play omber, the card game described in the same play.

Note cards, references, footnotes and bibliographies for their research papers keep juniors running around in circles. The scope of subjects investigated ranges from the "Origin of Drama" to "The Credibility of Flying Saucers." Taking a breather to look over her source cards is Carol Dmytryka.

English Encourages Creativity

History Records Man's Progress

Economics concentrates on those facts and concepts which will give young people a sound understanding of the economic system within which they live. Discussing a graph showing the different percentage rates on loans are Thomas Meehan, Joyce Oleksiak and David Sadowski.

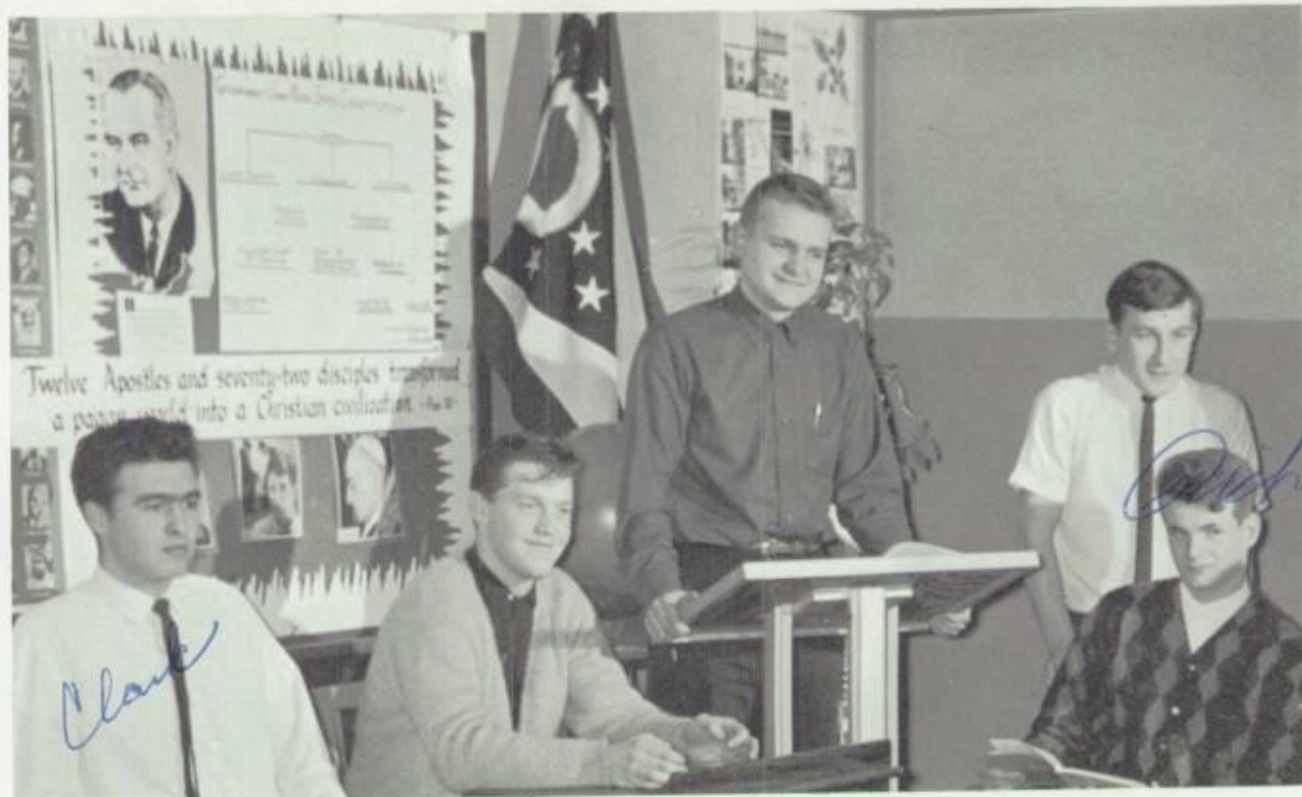

Modern history classes review the conditions of the world from its beginnings to the present day. Donald Wilczynski stresses his idea by signifying the area in question.

Showing how struggling countries have fought for existence and have developed in the midst of wars and strife is a function of the modern history classes. Watching while various countries are pointed out are Michelle Bresnahan, Kenneth Marciniak, and Patricia Gunselman.

National Problems, a course taken by the seniors, is a study of the ever-changing political, economic, and social problems of our country. Ready to assert their opinion are Clark Staszak, David Bauerschmidt, David Sadowski, Richard Starkey, and Kenneth Spitulski.

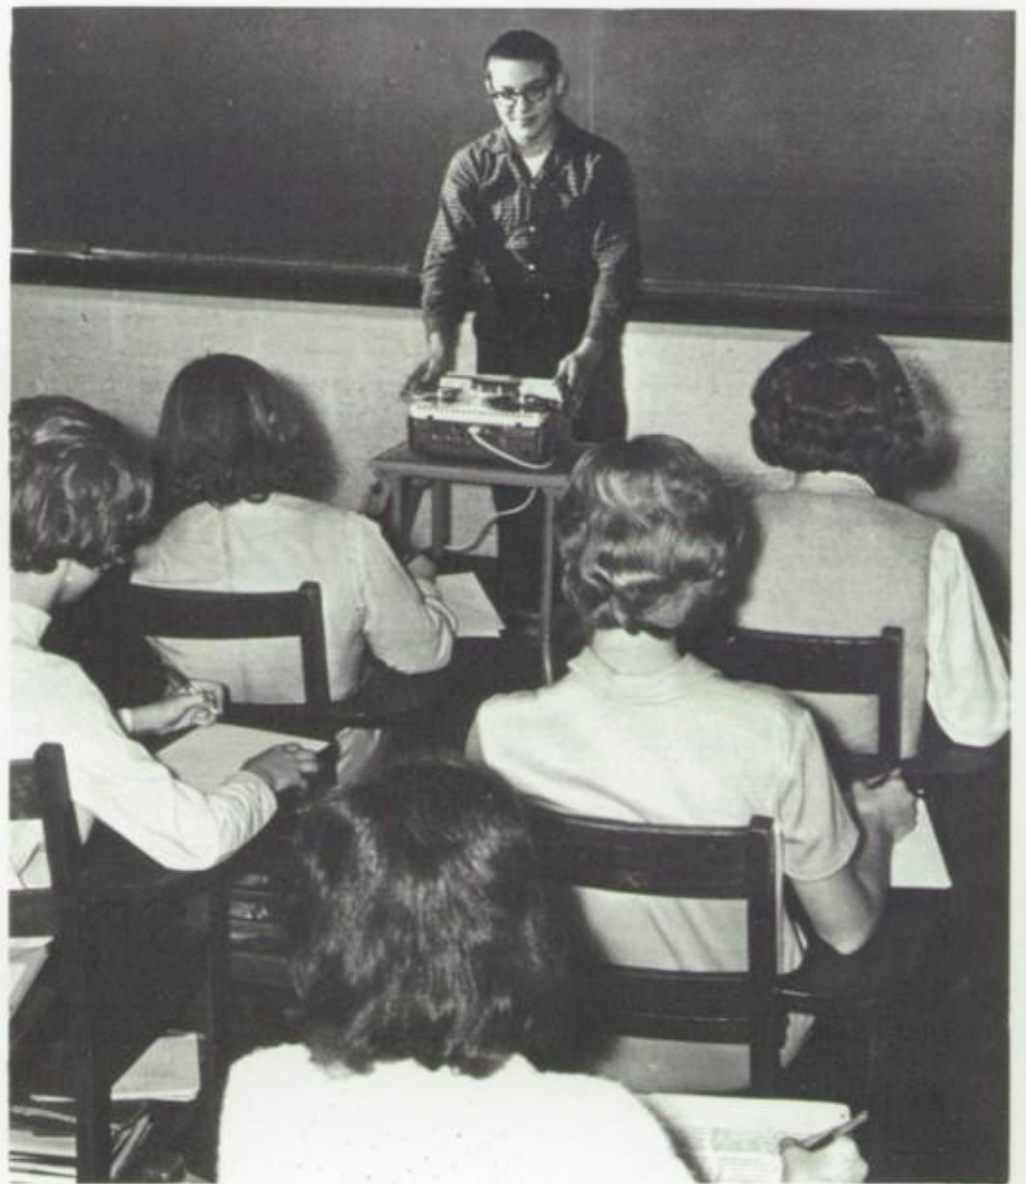

The early civilizations of the world and their contributions to mankind's growth are analyzed in ancient history classes. Discussing world developments are Timothy Wisniewski, Michaelene Gorney, Diane Koehl, and Robert McFadden.

The purpose of American History is to encourage young people to know their country better so that they love it more and serve it with devotion and honor. Discussing the Northwest Ordinance is Marlene Batog and waiting to add their information are Eugene Konczal, Georgia Abrass, and Carl Gedert.

Veni Vidi Vici

Besides regular classroom instruction, Latin students are given the opportunity to perfect their fluency by answering questions recorded on a tape. Operating the tape recorder is Ronald Langenderfer.

Students are offered a three-year course in German during which they learn all phases of grammar, increase their vocabulary, and develop conversational fluency. Die Madchen and die Jungen plan a skating party.

Centralites are offered a four-year Latin course, in which they learn the conjugation of verbs, the declension of nouns, and the translated orations of Cicero and Vergil. Avid senior fans of Vergil include Theresa Babula, Michaline Slomka, Mary Gearhart, Roy Harley, Richard Buckenmeyer, Joselyn Wahmhoff, and Esther Kosakowski.

Deutschland: Rich In Tradition

Besides achieving fluency in writing and conversation, Spanish students study the culture, geography, and history of Spain. Joseph Boudrie and Pamela Poplawski study a miniature senorita, while James O'Reilly and Donald McCluskey discuss a Spanish calendar. Sister Marie DeLourdes shows Patricia Lane, Mary Behan, Helen Urrutia, and Carla Welch a replica of Cervante's Don Quixote, a souvenir of her two month tour of Spain last summer.

Linguists Become Proficient In Romance

Central students are offered an intensive three-year course in French conversation, pronunciation, grammar, and history. Victoria Grachek and Patricia Operacz check a point in French grammar, while Barbara Martin, Ernest Jacob, and Christopher Binkert make use of a tape recorder to perfect their pronunciation.

French students were given the opportunity to write and interpret Dicken's "A Christmas Carol" in French. The three spirits -- past, present, and future are played by Kathleen Albrecht, Renee Gravel, and Antoinette Murawski. Barbara Basso dons a mustache to be "Scrooge", while Michael Barabash plays "Cratchit" and Nita LaPoint, "Tiny Tim."

Languages

Parlez-vous Français?

¿Habla Español?

In addition to regular classroom instruction, Spanish students participate in skits to improve their conversational fluency. Sandra Klosowski and Thomas Duck put vocabulary to good use by ordering Spanish delicacies from waiter Michael Hartranft.

Art, which may be defined as skill in performance acquired by experience and observation, includes not only intensive work in painting and sculpture but also a study of handmade pottery, like the vase being examined by Barbara Howe. In connection with interior decorating, Bonnie Batesole and Linda Schultz discuss fabric, textures, and design.

Girls, offered a comprehensive four-year course in art, are instructed in clay modeling and sculpture. Modeling clay are Mary Cousino, Lorraine Kotlewski, Michaline Slomka, Barbara Howe, Bonnie Batesole, and Linda Schultz.

Howe

Thought Bail Symbolized In Design

The boys' art department, under the direction of Sr. M. Lucilla RSM, offers a four-year course in the principles and techniques of art. Freshmen and sophomores are introduced to sketching, lettering, and the principles of color and design. In the junior and senior years, application of these principles is stressed and opportunities are provided for individual expression. Busy sketching Victoria Grachek are Edward Rikacek and David Bauerschmidt.

David Powell '65, Joseph Wilhelm '66, Edward Rikacek '66, and Mary Jane Mazuchowski '67 advanced to national competition as district winners in the Northwestern Ohio Regional Scholastic Art Competition. These students, along with Linda Schultz '66 and Cheryl Buck '67, were awarded local honors.

First year shorthand students diligently endure the task of learning the New Gregg Method of Shorthand. Linda Mercurio dictates while Paula Wymslo, Harriet Little, Patricia Krempa and Marcia Haladyna endeavor to take the dictation rapidly and transcribe it accurately.

Second year typing students aim for a perfect speed of 60, as Sandra Malin and Karen Smolinski indicate. Students learn how to do special office practice jobs, enabling them to be well prepared to embark on a career in business.

As the sophomores, juniors and seniors in first year typing class are intent on mastering the touch system of typing and building up speed while maintaining accuracy, Don Boes and Sharon Baker point out the unusual effect of artistic typing.

With enthusiasm, seniors in Mr. O'Rourke's Commercial Law class study court room proceedings. Tim Holt raises an objection, as "Prosecutor" Paul Borawski accuses Janet Tarka, the defendant, of Breach of Contract, in "Judge" Gary McKinley's court while Gary Cunningham acts as Court Clerk.

Income statements and balance sheets combine to make Bookkeeping a useful as well as an important business course. Tom Czarnecki shows Chuck Devine the correct way to make out an Income and Expense Summary. Balancing the books is one of the hardest parts of this subject.

Seniors in office practice class learn the fundamental procedures of such office machines as the Monroe Adding Machine, Monroe Educator, and various voice writing machines. Filing, letter writing, and standard offices procedures are taught.

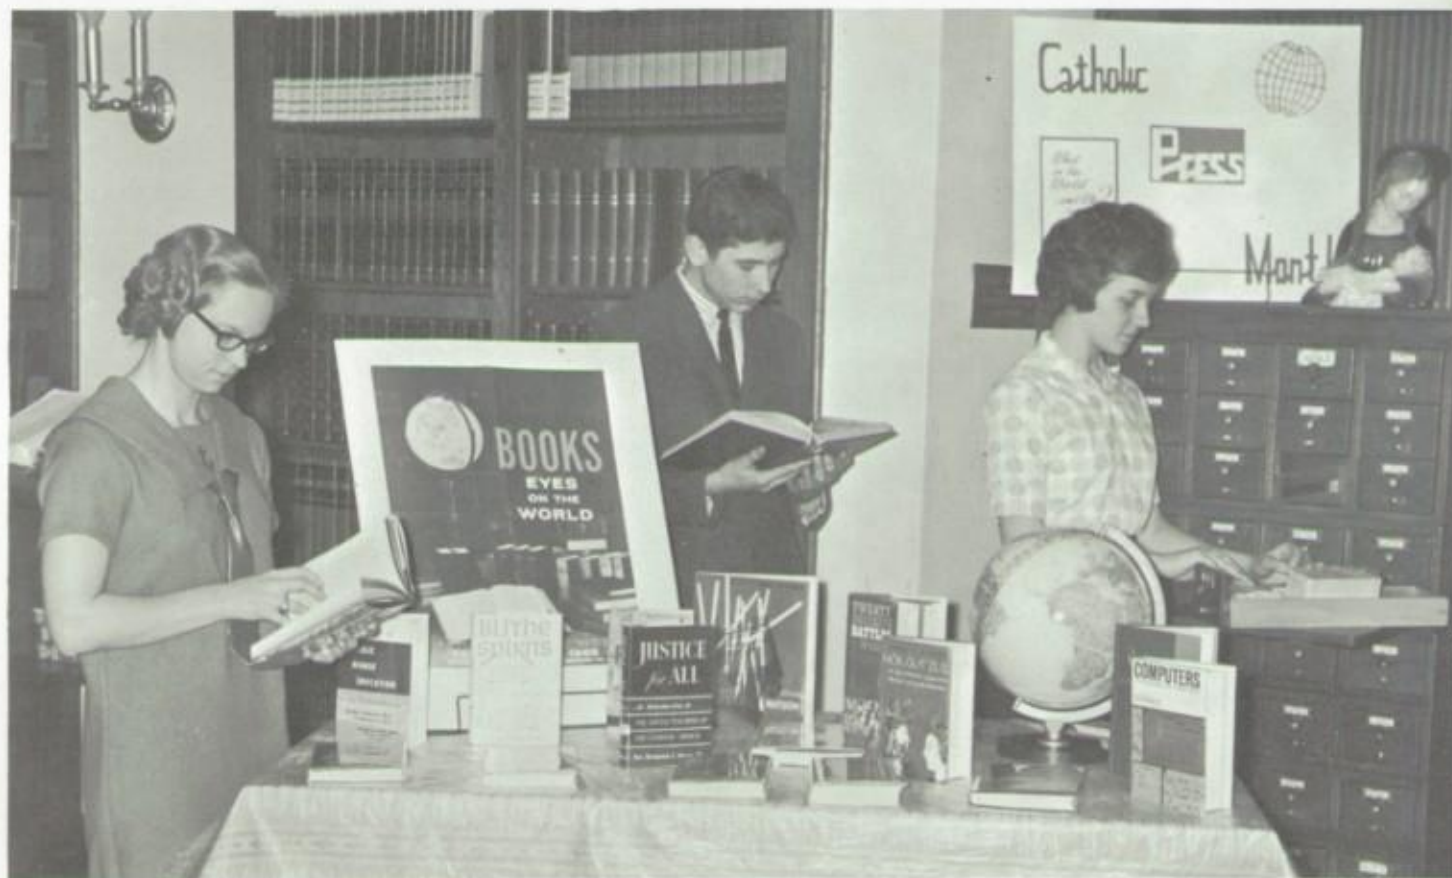

Business Education Key To The Future

The days preceding retreat increase the activity in room 212 -- Central's library. Attractive book displays encourage Donna Cook, Elizabeth Humbert, Susan Gardner, and Karin Eisenreich to select books suitable for spiritual reading.

Meeting Place Of Mind And Ideas

Deeply absorbed in the "Center of Knowledge" are Helene Boratyn, Thomas Kuchcinski, and Rosemary Johnson, who make maximum use of library facilities.

The Wonderful World Of Music

Music appreciation, a study of composers, masterpieces, instruments, and music history, broadens the interest and knowledge of students. Listening to recordings of different instruments are Sheila Mattimoe, Linda Graber, Thomas Schaub, James Staub, and Joanne Lewandowski.

Sr. M. John's musicians apply the principles of music theory in harmony class.

Spotlight On Future Homemakers

One of the fundamental arts taught in the Home Economics class is that of good grooming. Students learn the finer points of personal hygiene, which aids them in becoming well-groomed young women. Working toward this goal is Barbara Karow brushing Patricia Gunselman's hair, while Jacqueline Wilczynski gives her a manicure.

Home Economics, which acquaints girls with phases of food and nutrition, home management, clothing and related arts, work simplification, child care, home nursing, and interior decorating, helps to prepare future homemakers and mothers. Shown with the model rooms are Kathleen Slomka, Kathleen Dittman, Kathleen Kranz, Rita Esper, and Irene Johns.

Stressing Physical Fitness

Greater physical fitness, team spirit, and sportsmanship are emphasized by the girls gym classes. The girls participate in volleyball, calisthenics, deck tennis, and basketball throughout the year. Building a pyramid are Mary Borer, Sandra Klosowski, Mary Ann Sherry, Mary Jane Bartaldo, and Patricia McCarthy.

The boys gym classes stress the general health, body mechanics, performance in skills, and body contour. During the year the boys perform many vigorous activities such as basketball, touch football, gymnastics, softball, track and field, and calisthenics. One of the routine exercises in calisthenics is sit-ups.

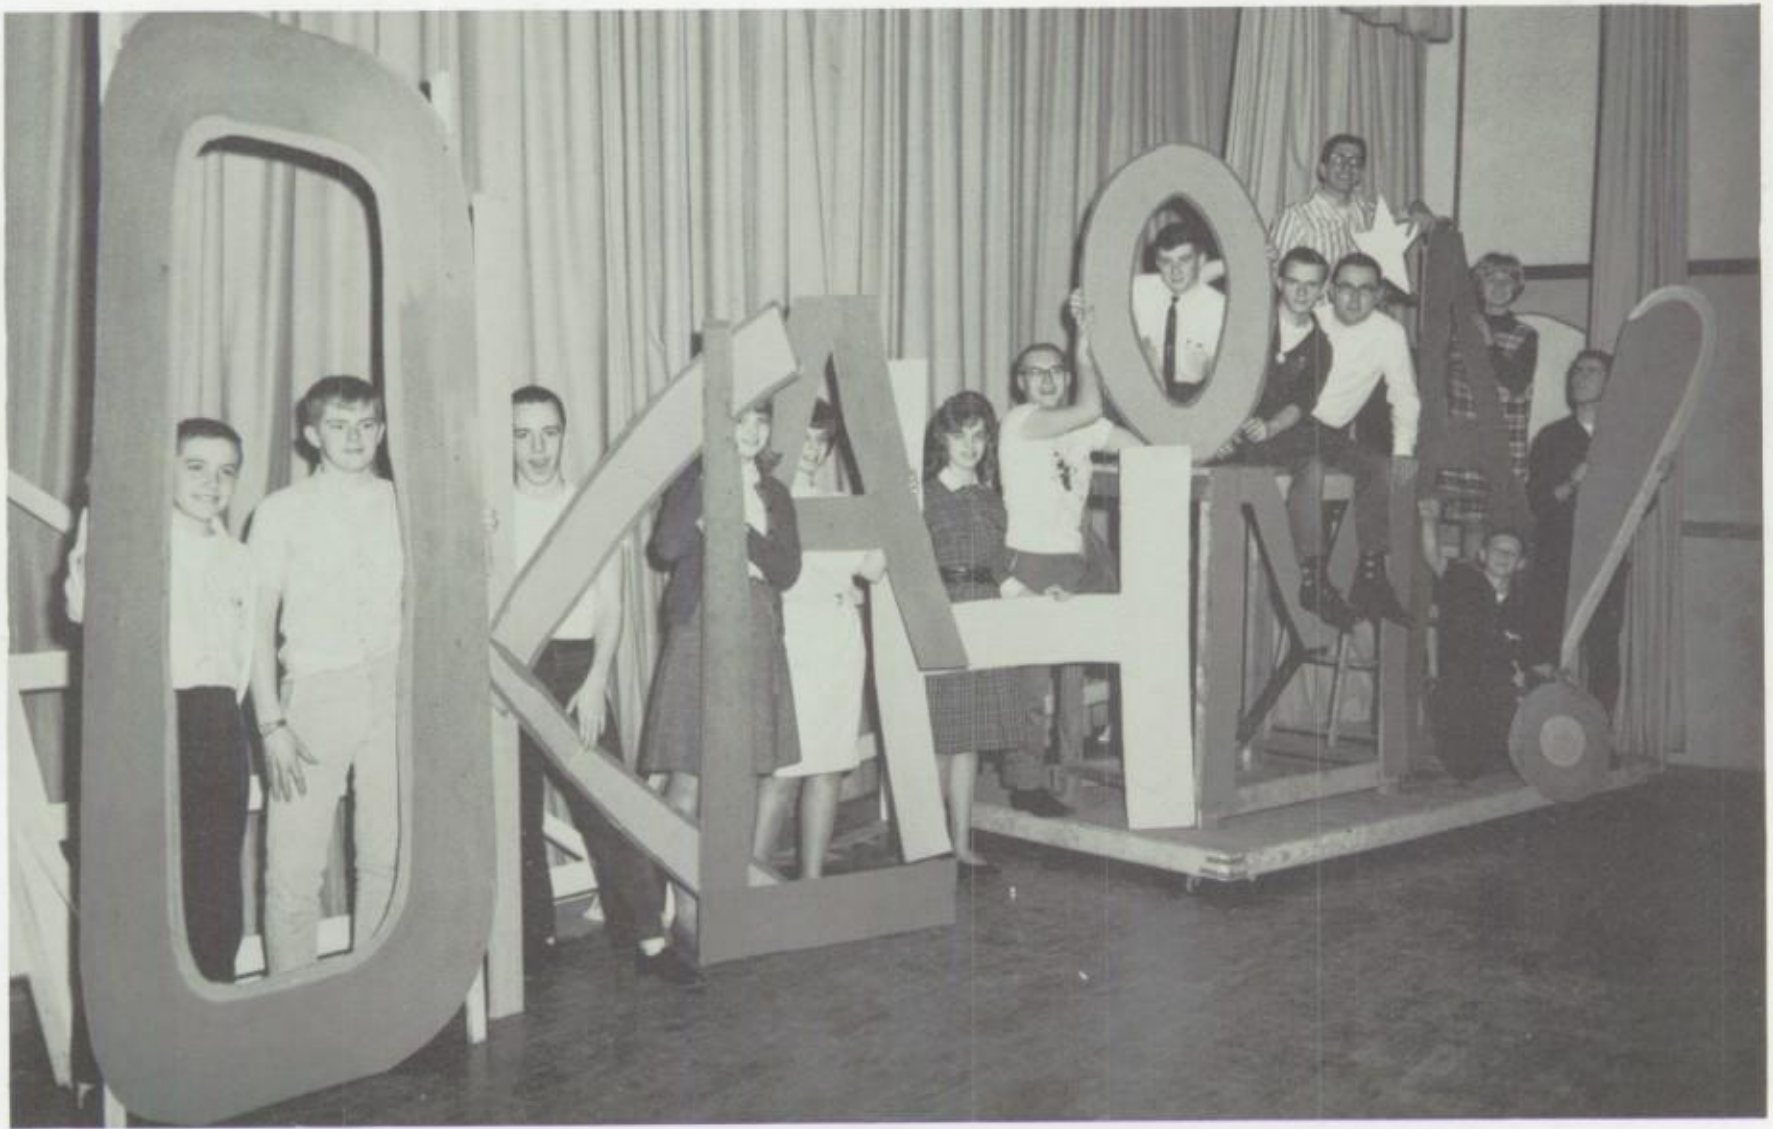

ACTIVITIES

Although extra-curricular activities are a change in pace from the daily routine of classes, for the Christian they must be more than a simple fulfillment of his social needs. For it is the Christian who must humanize and sanctify the social institutions to which he belongs. All his associations in his classes, in his neighborhood, in his community, in his leisure time, must be developed and transformed into a pattern for progress leading towards the eternal, unchangeable goal.

Final Tribute To A Mother

Centralites who have been selected to crown Mary, the court, and the crown bearers approach the flower bedecked altar of the Blessed Virgin, Queen of Heaven.

Frazene Gladieux and Richard Buckenmeyer, acting on behalf of the student body, place a crown on the statue of Our Lady as their final tribute to her while at Central.

As the end of the year comes, there are many things that are "the last time for seniors". Those that will hold a special place in senior memories are May Crowning and Graduation.

MAY CROWNING

As the sun shined brightly on the lawn of Central Catholic High School on May 26 for the 23rd annual May Crowning, Frazene Gladieux and Richard Buckenmeyer crowned the Blessed Virgin, Queen of May and Queen of Central. Strains of "O Mary We Crown Thee With Blossoms Today" echoed in the background.

Also paying homage in a special way were members of the Saint John Berchmans Sanctuary Society and the girls in the living Rosary. The Varsity Glee Club led the singing of hymns and the band provided musical accompaniment.

Faculty, students, and visitors assembled on the front campus paid tribute to Our Lady by joining in the rosary, hymns, and litany. Working to make the day a success were Sr. M. Jean Francis, SND, and Sr. M. Louis, SND, who co-ordinated activities.

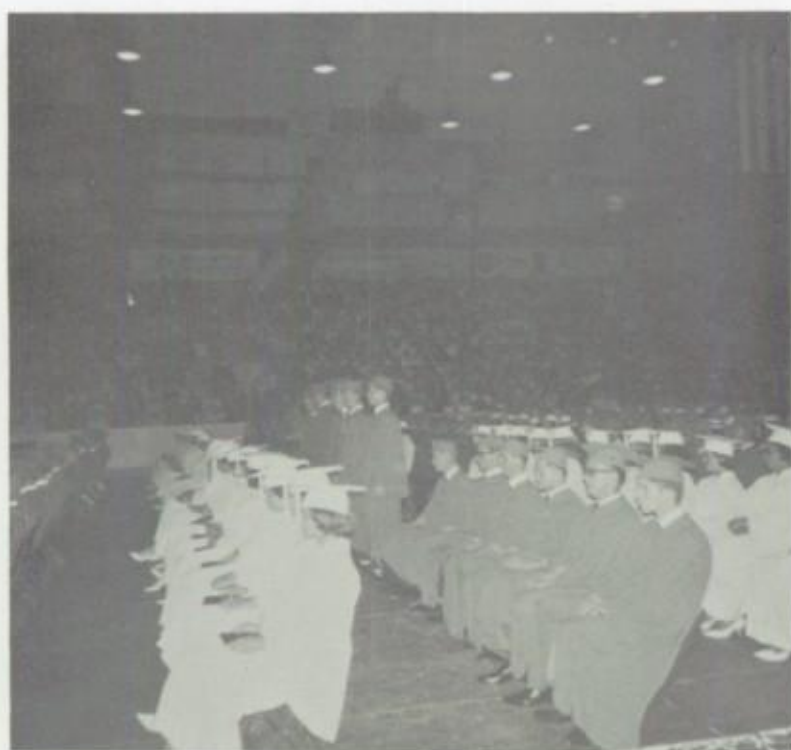

GRADUATION

Graduation is the end to four years but the beginning of life in the adult world. The point of transition for the class of '65 was evening of June 11 when we received our diplomas.

At Commencement many awards were presented including the Bishop's cross for excellence in religion and monograms to outstanding seniors.

We returned to our seats, diplomas in hand, no longer seniors but now alumni.

Graduation: Not An End, But Another Beginning

Graduates of 1965 fill the immense hall of the Sports Arena on June 11 for their last school activity, the final farewell to high school life.

Bishop George J. Rehring presents the coveted Bishop's Cross to the graduate outstanding in religion.

She Dombrowski, '64 Homecoming Queen, relinquishes her crown to Patricia Albrecht. Looking on are Jeff Hellrung, Student Council President, and Chris Hunter, her escort.

Queen Patricia Reigns

Preceding the speeches and appeals of queen candidates and managers, Central's Glee Club entertained the assembly singing "Elijah Rock" and the all time favorite, "Mr. Touchdown." Senior girls wearing chrysanthemums formed an arch for the celebrities to pass through.

Candidate Pat Albrecht, unaware of what Friday night will bring, appeals to the student body for votes, as her manager, Chris Hunter hopefully observes audience reaction to her speech.

In the first moments of her Queenship, Pat's car, driven by Jim Staub, led the car caravan as she smiled and waved to the crowd. Her escort, Chris Hunter, shared this moment of glory.

Pat wears the crown of queen as she reigns over the four representative beauties in her court: Sharon Simms, Kathy O'Loughlin, Suzanne Borgess, and Sue Zalenski.

Sue Honored As Queen Candidate

"Touch Of Gold"

Casts Its Spell

"Miss Sue Zalenski, representing Central Catholic High School, escorted by Jim Zychowicz" rang through the Lucas County Recreation Center on February 6. The introduction of the queen candidates and their escorts climaxed a week of anxious waiting for this moment with its "Touch of Gold." The week before, candidates from area schools were interviewed by the four judges at an afternoon tea, giving the judges a chance to meet the contestants personally.

The previous week, Student Council members selected five finalists: Sharon Simms, Sue Borgess, Kathy O'Loughlin, June Maas, Jackie Glinka, and Sue, after which the seniors made the final decision of the girl who could best represent Central.

Escorted by Jim Zychowicz, Sue prepares to enter the Lucas County Recreation hall. As she is announced as Central's candidate to those attending the dance, Sue walks through the aisle formed by the audience.

Miss Susan Zalenski represented Central as queen candidate at the Toledo Area Student Council Dance, "Touch of Gold," on February 6.

Juniors, Seniors 'Return To Tara'

"Return to Tara," April 23, took juniors and seniors back to the days of the Southern plantation from Gone With The Wind. The site of this year's prom was changed to the newly-built Lucas County Recreation Center hall.

Under the supervision of Miss Sally O'Connell and Mrs. Dorothy Brown, general prom chairmen Mary Ann Olczak and Rick Ringlein planned the prom to honor graduating seniors. Long hours of working and planning finally took the form of reality as decorations were created and put into place.

Jim Elliot's orchestra provided music to enchant the evening and to create the proper atmosphere.

Central's junior models provided the audience with the latest in prom fashions at "The Way You Look Tonight" on April 7.

Prom-goers Tim Sullivan and Peggy Valigosky pause near a terrace adorning the Southern plantation.

Awaiting a "Return To Tara," Patrick Pawlecki, Carlene Knoicki, Mary Ann Olczak, and Rick Ringlein discuss the long hours and the planning required to make this a very special night.

The peddler, Ali Hakim, wishes Ado Annie a Persian Good-Bye while Will looks on in disgust.

Aunt Eller tries to raise the price on the box lunch in the bidding competition between Jud Fry and Andrew Carnes.

SRO Audience Enjoys 'Oklahoma'

Will tells his fellow cow-punchers about his recent visit to a rodeo in Kansas City where "everything is up to date."

The overwhelming popularity of the Rodgers and Hammerstein hit "Oklahoma!" when it was presented in 1958 prompted Mr. Gerald DePrisco and Mrs. Roger Weiher to select it as the spring musical. The Music Department staged five performances at the State Theatre on April 30, May 1, 2, 7, and 8.

It was "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning" when Curly McLaine (Tom Zimmerman) came callin' on Miss Laurey Williams (Sharon Sitek) to invite her to ride with him in "The Surrey with the Fringe on Top" to the annual box social. But Laurey had already promised to go with Jud Fry (Larry Bissonnette), so Curly escorted Aunt Eller (Kathy Kozlowski) instead. His disappointment was momentarily forgotten when Will Parker (Terry Sochocki) returned victorious from a rodeo in "Kansas City."

Laurey bought an elixir from Ali Hakim (Craig Correll) believing it would help her to think clearly. Ali cried, "It's a Scandal! It's an Outrage!" when Andrew Carnes (Walter Sneider) told him at gunpoint to marry his daughter Ado Annie (Joanne Bonk).

Laurey soon realized her true feelings for Curly and they became engaged. On their wedding night, friends wished them well by singing "Oklahoma!" While the men gave the newly-weds a "Shivoree," Jud appeared and, during a fight with Curly, was killed. Curly was declared innocent and he and Laurey departed in the surrey.

Laurey firmly declares that "Many A New Day" will dawn before she cries for any man.

Curly and Laurey wave good-bye from the surrey as they depart for their new home.

"Oklahoma -- OK!" exclaim the friends celebrating the wedding of Laurey and Curly who are ready to "start a brand new life, in a brand new state."

Dramatists Stage 'My Sister Eileen'

"My Sister Eileen," directed by Mrs. Roger Weiher, played to enthusiastic audiences, November 20-22. The orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Donald Noble, provided musical selections during the intermission of the popular Broadway comedy.

The plot revolves around the two Sherwood sisters -- Ruth, a neophyte journalist, and her sister Eileen, an aspiring actress -- from Columbus, Ohio, who try to "make good" in New York. The girls lease a Greenwich Village basement studio. During the first few months, a variety of hilarious situations created by the neighbors upstairs, the Greek landlord-painter, friendly Portuguese sailors, and other unusual visitors create a whirl of activity for the two heroines. The heartwarming comedy is climaxed by the girls' decision to remain in New York rather than to return home.

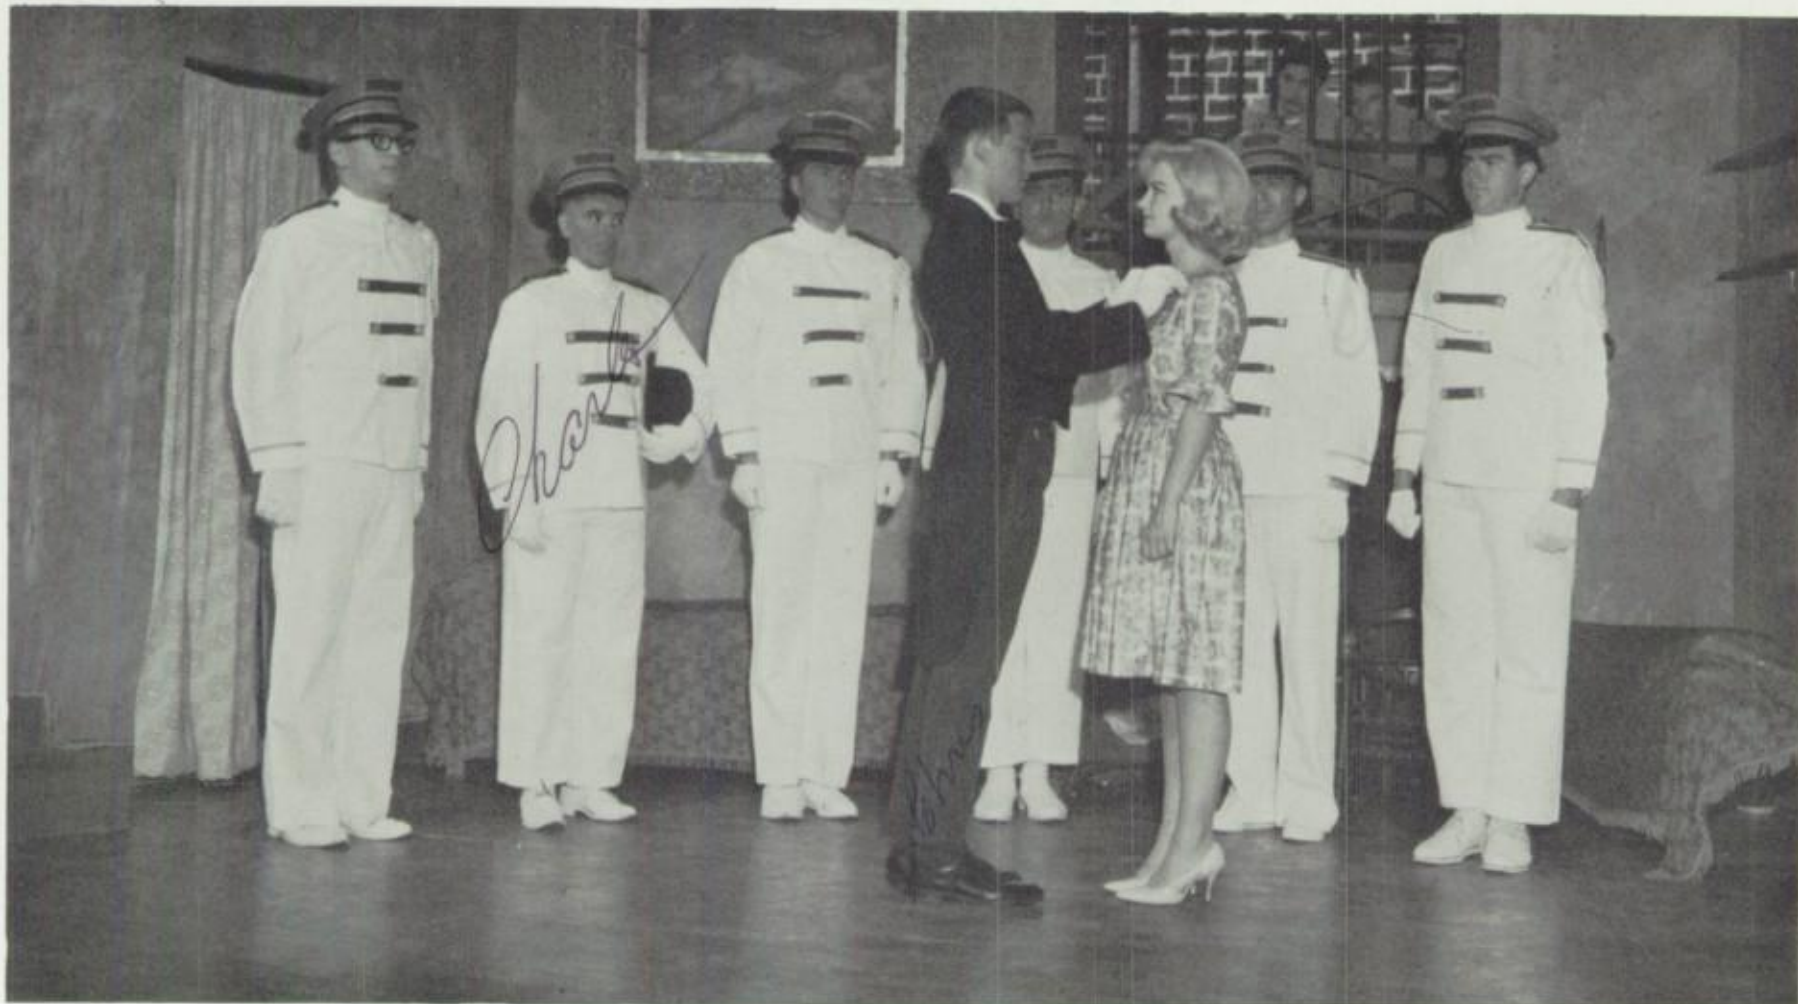

Never a dull moment in the Sherwood studio! Appopolus holds the newly-signed lease as a sandhog (Larry McCartney) takes a short-cut through the studio. Eileen and Ruth soon accustom themselves to the unusual. Newspaperman Chic Clark (Terry Sochocki) stands speechless as a Cossack (Tom Rawski) arrives with dancer Violet Shelton (Christine Seibenick). Patrolman Lonigan (Larry Nester) inquires: "Ya know what time it is?"

Ruth Sherwood (Patricia Dever) enumerates the unappealing aspects of the studio to prospective tenant (Pat Albrecht) as Landlord Appopolus (Craig Correll) disagrees with her description.

Eileen Sherwood (Suzanne Borgess) who makes friends easily accepts a gift from her latest admirer, Frank Lippencott (Michael Powers).

The Portuguese Consul (Chris Hunter) awards a medal of honor to Eileen. The six future admirals (Tom Rawski, Charlie Zurawski, Jeff Hellrung, Steve Stimiak, Ed Mowka, and John Wakelin) stand at attention as two boys (Robert Insenga and John Yarbrough) watch through the grate.

"Let's get out of here!" commands the visiting Mrs. Wade (Margaret High) to her daughter Helen (Karen Agosti). The Wreck (Mike Amstutz), Helen's husband, observes his mother-in-law for the first time.

"You and Eileen are returning home with me immediately," announced Walter Sherwood (Tom Zimmerman). "But father! Jensen (Ed Mowka) is only passing through with an ice box for the upstairs apartment," pleaded Ruth.

Karen Smolinski of circulation folds Centrics to be mailed to exchange papers and subscribers. The staff also runs the addressograph.

Deep in thought, sports editor Larry Montrie contemplates the positioning of a story for the next issue.

Co-editors Mary Ellen Ignasiak and Tim Sexton co-ordinate the workings of all four pages to produce the finished paper.

Business managers Frank Grobosky, and Tom Meehan place a telephone call while ad managers Larry Nester and Clarence Cerrone type statements to send to those who purchased ads.

Centric Staff Makes Presses Roll

The 1965 Centric, under the guidance of co-editors Tim Sexton, Mary Ellen Ignasiak and moderator Sister Thomas More OSU, donned a new look this year as the production process was switched to offset printing in January.

The staff was faced with headlines, layouts and deadlines as they rushed to bring Centralites news of the school community. Room 124 became the center of activity as the bi-weekly deadlines grew near.

This year's publications, besides sporting the traditional Squeak, club, and class columns, also featured a variety of new angles in news reporting. Guest columnists and interviews with civic leaders greeted Centralites when they delved into their papers.

The 1965 Centric has carried on the tradition set by its predecessors of factual, non-biased reporting in an effort to keep all students up to date on school activities.

Centripetal Hub Of Activity

The 1965 Centripetal staff, under the leadership of John Gardner and Frances Hayes, fought deadlines and headlines in an attempt to present this year's annual.

The staff was faced with the task of determining color, theme, and arrangement in an attempt to make this year's edition of the Centripetal a publication to remember.

The yearbook, financed by a patron drive which netted over $3,000, advertising and student subscription drives, went to press in April. The staff hopes that the 1965 Centripetal will hold fond memories of this school year.

Co-editors Frances Hayes and John Gardner mastered the deadline demon in order to bring the 1965 CENTRIPETAL off the press on schedule.

The business staff successfully changed debits into credits. Checking patron returns are Ron Schmitt, Karen Sattler, Gerry Zielinski, Joan Periat, and Randy Wales, business manager.

Sharon Simms and Elaine Cuzynski, art editors, check final page layouts before forwarding them to the printer. The cover design was the outgrowth of Elaine's original sketch.

The wide, wide world of sports was covered by Tim Sexton, Tom Zimmerman, Greg Parker, Don Boes, and Dave Lardinais, section editor.

In his office as student council president, Jeffrey Hellrung is responsible for the successful completion of each council undertaking.

Student Council

Promotes Activities

The Student Council acts as the voice of Central's students in co-ordinating extra-curricular activities. School projects are guided by the hard work of the directors. Serving her first year as moderator is Sr. M. Johnene, SND, assisted by veteran, Mr. Tim Dever.

The executive committee, consisting of student council officers, class officers, senators and commissioners, bears the responsibility for co-ordinating all school projects. Meeting each Monday, they discuss matters pertinent to school life. This year, the Inter-Club Council, under the direction of vice-president John Woll, has been reactivated. Central's Student Council is affiliated with the National Association of Student Councils and the Toledo Area Student Council.

Officers of the Catholic Art Apostolate, Emerson Hallenbeck, Terry Sochocki, Larry Golba, and Dave Powell, exhibit a fitting example of true Christian Art.

In preparation for Benediction, Valorie Chwialkowski removes the cape from the cabinet while Lorraine Kotlewski readies the other garments. Bonnie Batestole will put the missal on the altar and Trudy Daley will light a fresh vigil lamp.

The Catholic Students Mission Crusade, moderated by Sr. M. Jean Francis, SND, promotes mission activities such as Christmas sales and the medicine drive. This year the CSMC consolidated with the Eucharistic Marian.

Under the auspices of Sr. M. Louis SND, the St. John Berchman Sanctuary Society promotes religious vocations among the boys who act as servers.

Under the guidance of Sr. M. Lucilla RSM, the Catholic Art Apostolate strives to raise the standards of appreciation and revive true Christian art by presentation of slides and discussion of art values.

The daily care of Christ the King Chapel is the duty of members of the St. Hilda Guild, directed by Sr. Ruth Ann SND. Club dues provide accessories and necessities for the chapel. Club members prepare altar in the gym for the annual retreat.

Activities Reflect Christian Involvement

CSMC members Janice Shonly, Marilyn Sheroian, Ronald Nirschl, Cathy Corcoran, and Ron Whipple devote their time and efforts to sorting and packing medicine samples donated by the doctors. The medicine is shipped to the foreign missions.

National Honor Society president, Mike Essi, calls a meeting to order as Sandy Bush, Michaline Slomka and Carol Niewiadomski check the roll call.

Tomorrow's Citizens Participate Today

Posters provided the proper atmosphere during mock elections sponsored by the JCWA. Mike Fosnaugh proposes the qualifications of his favorite candidate to Karen Kirk and Jeanne Nalodka.

Members of the Junior Council on World Affairs, Ed Cieslikowski and Diane Niezgoda, debate the pros and cons of a recent article concerning an international crisis. Craig LaBay and Harley Andrzejewski express their points of view.

The Junior Council on World Affairs stimulates interest in current events under the guidance of Sr. Mary of Mercy RSM. Central's unit was host to the Toledo Area Council in December and participated in the Spring Institute at Toledo University.

Under the direction of Sr. M. Adolph SND, members of the German Club participate in activities designed to enrich their knowledge of German culture and geography such as attending the International Institute which familiarizes members with German songs and dances.

Members are elected into the National Honor Society by the faculty. Students elected must have the necessary scholastic requirements, as well as outstanding Leadership, Service and Character. The organization has used as its theme for the year, "the development of the arts for leisure." The Incoming Freshmen Open-House has now become the major annual project. A board of nine faculty members comprise the faculty committee, with Mrs. Velma C. Pfeiffer acting as the advisor.

Sr. M. Kathleen SND, moderates monthly French Club meetings, planned to promote a deeper interest in the people and customs of France.

French club officers proudly display French valentines designed by club members. Linda Byers shows hers to Paula Kern and Tom Zimmerman. Chris Seibenick feels the one she selects is very appropriate to send to their friends in France.

Clubs Express

Education

In Action

Future Teachers of America, directed by Sr. M. Clarisena RSM, acquaints members with various educational fields by observing elementary classroom procedure in area schools.

The Chemistry Club, guided by Sr. M. Florian, OSF, supplements the student's chemical knowledge through the presentation of recent improvements and new theories.

The Spanish Club, moderated by Sr. M. de Lourdes, OSU, provides an opportunity to use the language and learn the culture of hispanic countries.

Under the auspices of Sr. M. Alice, OSF, the Junior Classical League encourages interest in ancient civilization. Highlighting the year is the Saturnalia at Christmas time and the state convention in Columbus.

The Radio Club, supervised by Sr. M. Tere-sita, OSF, develops interest in electronics through practical experience and provides a means to obtain a license.

Janice Kruger and Patricia Dever, future teachers, voluntarily check assignment papers for teachers. In order to gain valuable experience, Mary Ball takes notes on the process of calculating grades as Karoll Rowe observes one of the daily procedures she will perform after four years of college preparation for the teaching profession.

David Kolodziejczyk demonstrates to Radio Club members the proper way to speak into the microphone of a short-wave radio system. Jim Kasprzak and Bob Mioduszewski check his procedures while Walter Sneider examines the condition of the radio equipment.

Chemist Bill Jennings assists Bob Walczak and Judy Lewandowski in calculating chemistry formulas for their next experiment. Ralph Trease and John Wozny learn the intricacies of a gyroscope, as an aid to their chemical studies.

Spanish Club officers Joe Boudrie and James Dunne examine a finished issue of the club's monthly Spanish newspaper, "La Charla Espanola." Ellen Wierszewski types copy for the next issue while Pat Lane composes headlines.

Latin scholars Sandy Barrow, Mike Solwicz, Kathy Slomka, and Jean Szychowski hold the scroll bearing the name "Saturnalia" - a Roman festival similar to our Thanksgiving. The Romans honored the Saturn, the earth god, in thanksgiving for a bountiful harvest. Some modern Christmas customs stem from the Roman Saturnalia.

Encouraging interest in the field of mathematics is the goal of the Math Club. Under the supervision of Sr. M. Teresita OSF, members took a field trip through the University of Toledo computer center, and heard many fine speakers at regularly scheduled meetings.

Obtaining a greater knowledge of the functions of science in daily life is stressed by the Biology Club, directed by Sr. M. Blandina OSF. To improve the club's organization and activities, a constitution has been written and ratified by members.

The basic function of the Camera Club is to develop skill in the use of the camera. Aided by Sr. M. Lucilla RSM, members learn the latest methods in developing and processing photos.

To acquaint themselves with the different opportunities open to registered nurses, the Future Nurses of America tour area hospitals and attend lectures given by key people in the medical field. Sr. M. Ambrose RSM serves as moderator.

Biology Club president, Tom Woll, receives a Science Fair application from Treasurer, John Scarlato. Stephanie Schafer and Nancy Meredith realize the effort and hard work put into a science project in order to earn a Superior Rating.

Students Share Responsibilities

Nurses of tomorrow, Diane Opeil and Karen Kirk, watch Cheryl Collier and Sue Carr, assisted by Dorothy Cousino and Janice Lusiak, model nurses' caps.

Mathematicians, Ed Mowka and Esther Kosakowski, discuss the problem of computing the area of the 3-D polygon which John Pacer holds. Marilyn Bagdonas and Mike Gyurko check the theorem for the correct method of computing the answer.

Through Club Activities

Jay Kowalski, Jim Hermann, and John Falke focus their attention on Peggy LaPlante as they examine the photographic merits of the picture she holds.

Kathleen Werner begins to replace books on the shelf. Diane Norts, Judi Mercurio and Frank Grobosky remain ready and willing to render service to those needing reference materials. Library Club members attempt to bring students to a greater realization of the true value of frequent reading.

Clubs Emphasize Reading

Lending a helping hand to allow librarians more time for their professional services, the Library Club members assist students in taking out and returning books. The climax of the year was the presentation of an assembly by members entitled: "Bookland Characters."

Pro-Christo Club members study to learn more about our Catholic faith in order to combat the evils of Communism more effectively. For the second year member students, under the leadership of Mr. Dean Richards, attempt to bring the knowledge they gain to others following the principle of "Each one teach one."

Cafeteria Head

Dedicated to the work of running the cafeteria smoothly, these ladies, under the direction of Mr. John Packo, cheerfully prepare the food for lunches. They are: Mrs. Jane Wojciechowski, Mrs. Evelyn Kensi, Mrs. Ruth Witko, Mrs. Alice Lewandowski, Mrs. Marie Bush, Mrs. Pat Kas, Mrs. Louis Nawrocki, and Mrs. Mary Wicks.

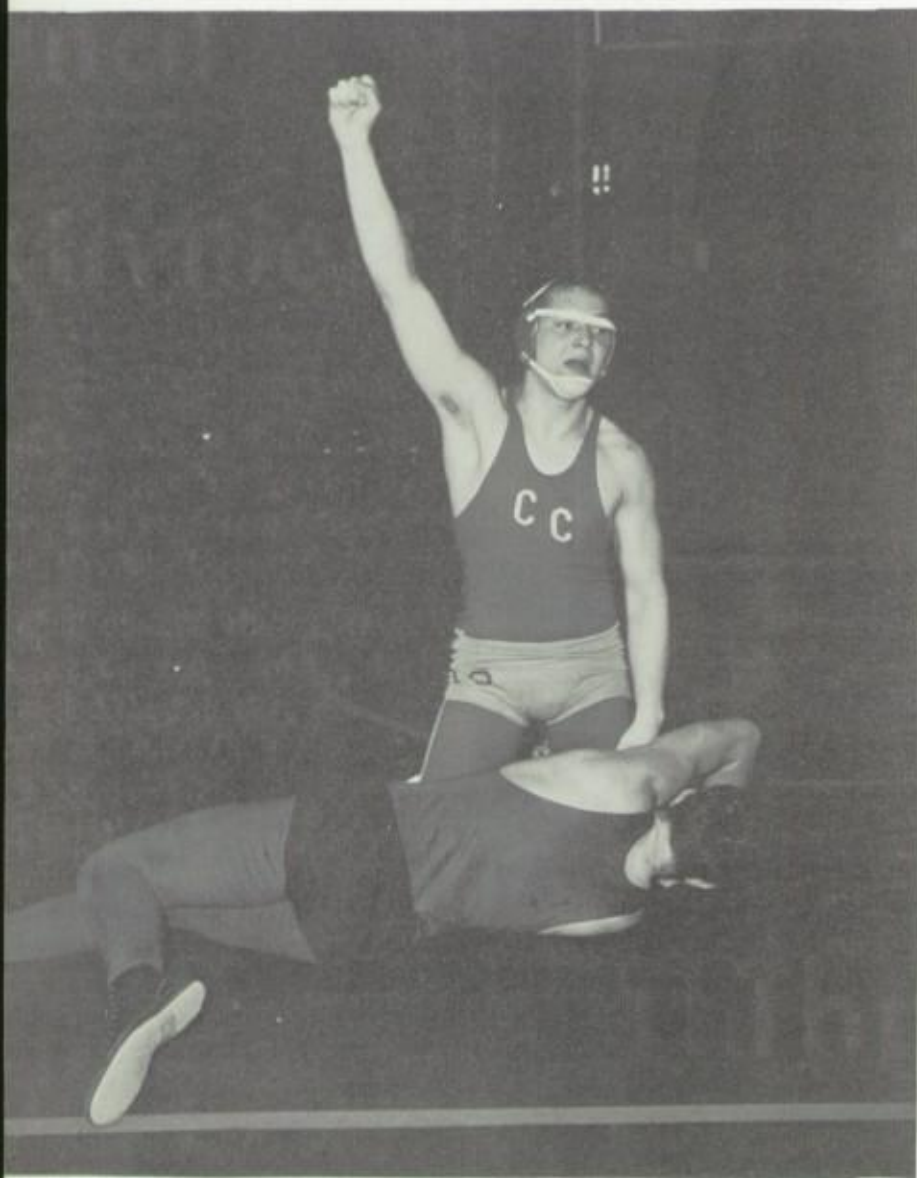

Cafeteria, Maintenance Staffs Run Central Smoothly

The indispensable members of the maintenance staff, led by Mr. F. Ellerbrock, daily proceed with their task of keeping Central sparkling. In the boiler room, preparing to begin a new day of devoted service are: Mr. L. Schafer, Mr. F. Ellerbrock, Mrs. Virginia Toczynski, Mr. R. Ellerbrock, Mr. S. Jaswiok, Mr. L. Nosker, Mr. L. Kean, and Mr. E. Pawlinski.

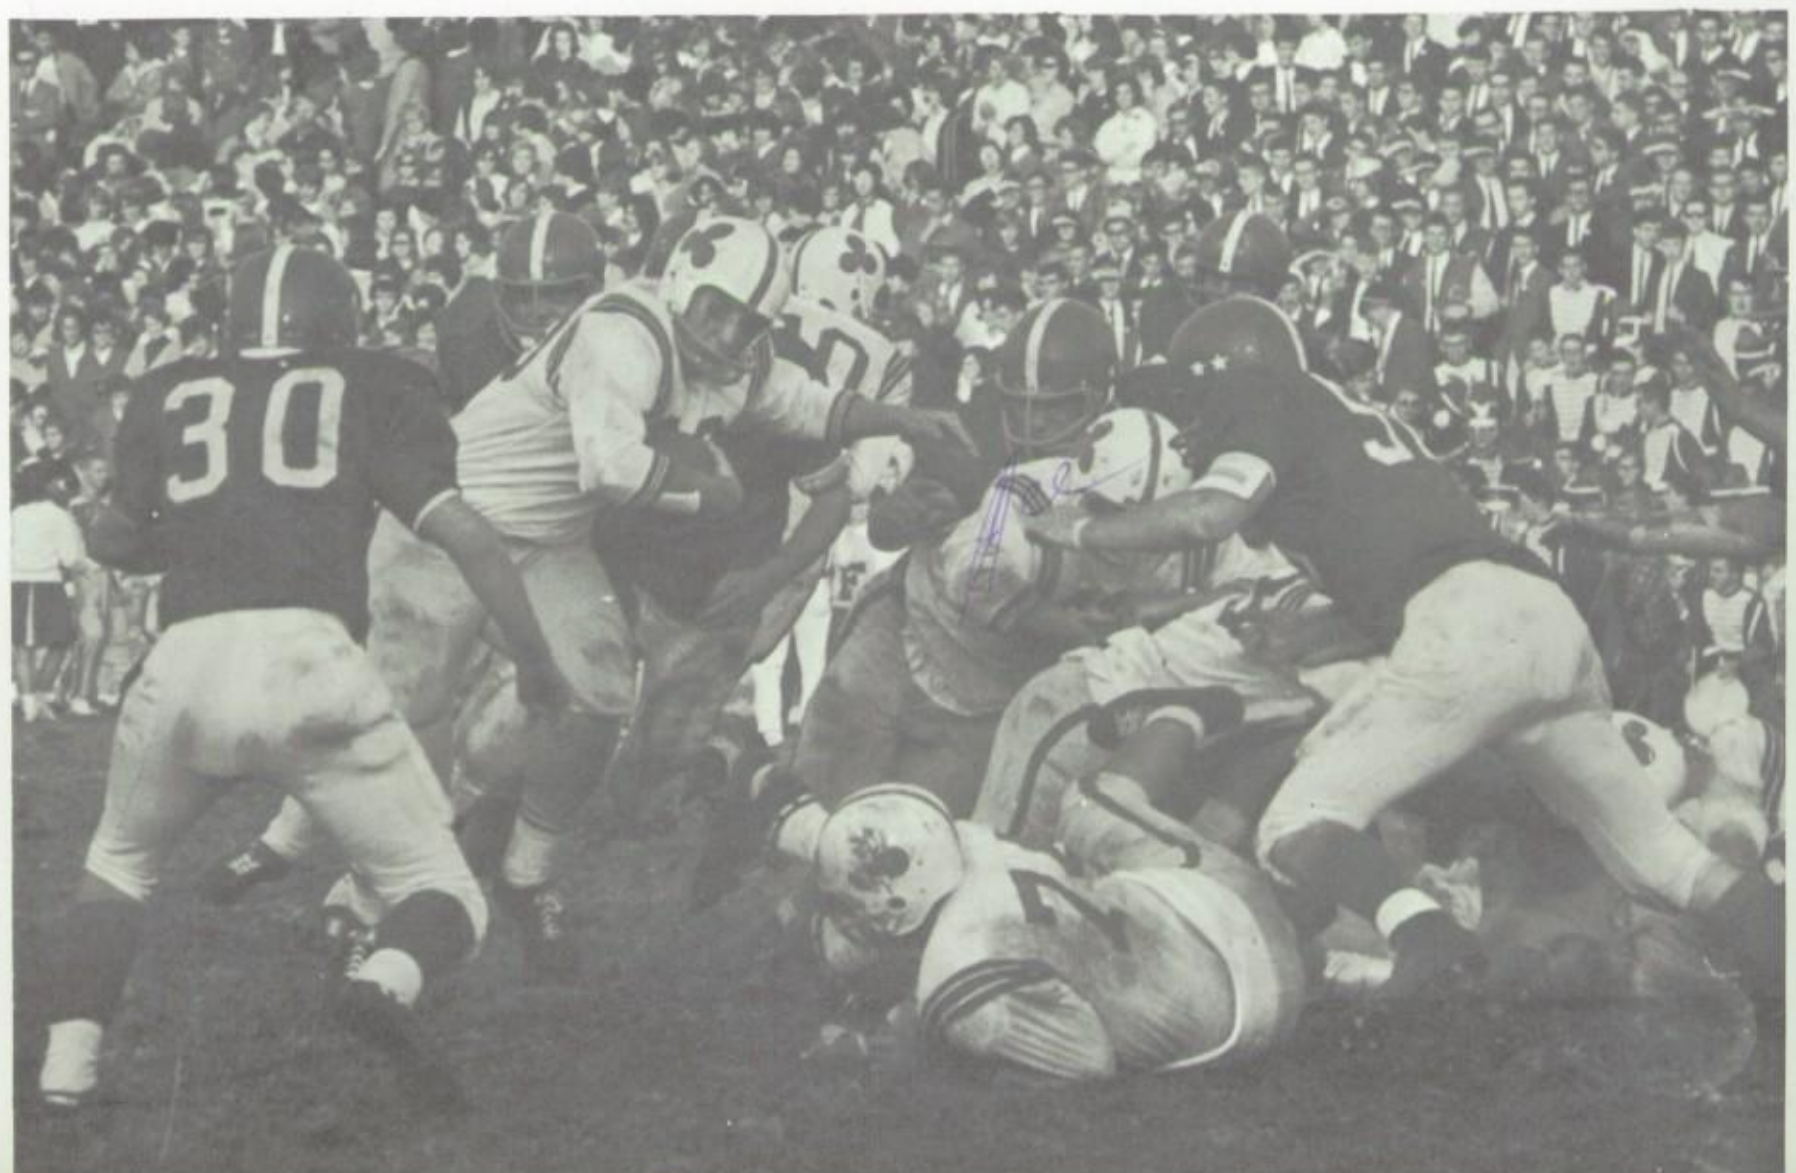

Mr. Felix Ellerbrock

SPORTS

As the seasons change, the tempo of the athletic program is altered. But this shift in pace does not affect the integration of team strategy on the gridiron or court with the individual development of character. The honor given the star athletes and the solid cementing spirit of a student section cheering the team to victory are but undertones of the program. A wide range of sports provides opportunities to foster an attitude of Christlikeness through which leisure time bears admirably the definition of the good life.

Fighting Irish Sparkle In Gridiron Limelight

The 1964 "Fighting Irish" Campaign

Coach Cordiak's Varsity Squad was considered the underdog at the start of the 1964 football season but the tremendous enthusiasm of the student body coupled with the overwhelming spirit and perseverance of an excellent team led to an astonishing season.

The grid-men of Central won 7 of their 9 games. Their only city league defeat came with less than a minute to go against Macomber, as the Irish were finally worn down by a much heavier team. The high point of the season came on the afternoon of November 8, when Central's "Fighting Irish" thumped the Knights of St. Francis, 26-6. This win kept the "Irish Knight", a coveted and sought after trophy, in the hands of Central for another year.

Other high points were frequent as the Irish gridders rebounded from a poor preceding season. A 54-0 stampeding of the Bowsher Rebels revealed Coach Cordiak's charges' offensive prowess. The Celts also proved they were not lacking for defensive ability as evidenced by a 8-0 victory over a tough Libbey Cowboy squad in which the defense sparkled.

In conclusion to the successful campaign, 14 Fighting Irish merited All-City honors. Four of these, Dennis Zolciak, Jerry Krall, Jim McGurk, and Jim Zychowicz copped first team berths.

Zolciak and McGurk also were honored at the annual football banquet. Zolciak was named most valuable player and Jim McGurk was cited as the player with the most desire. The gridders were addressed by Duffy Daugherty, head football mentor at Michigan State University. Mr. Daugherty stressed the value of football as a means of acquiring teamwork, sacrifice, and discipline and stated, "The greatest value of competitive activity is the learning of the value to excel."

Mr. Timothy Dever

Mr. Dever has again proven an invaluable aid to Central Catholic's sports program. Acting in his official post as Athletic Director, Mr. Dever is the one person most responsible for the dynamic spirit characteristic of Central's teams and student body.

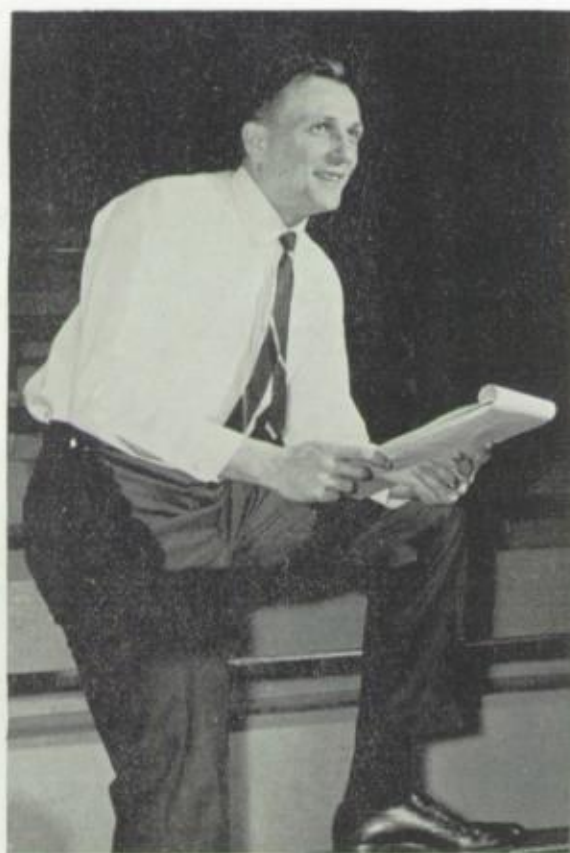

This first year as head coach of the Fighting Irish grid team has been most satisfactory for Mr. James Cordiak. Under his guidance the team, one of the lightest in the city, compiled a 7-2 record and took second place in the City League. Mr. Cordiak is also the boys' Physiology teacher.

Mr. James Cordiak

1964-65 Coaching Staff

Backbone Of Irish Athletic Body

Mr. James Zak

Mr. Zak, another first-year man, has won his place on Central's athletic staff. He is the head golf coach and he assisted Mr. Cordiak with the football team and Mr. Lewis with the Varsity Basketball team. Mr. Zak is also a Physical Education teacher.

Mr. Donald Lewis is well-known around Central. He has been a coach at CCHS for five years. He made his debut as a backfield coach for the football team and has spent the past two seasons as head basketball coach. Mr. Lewis is also one of Central's Government teachers.

Mr. Donald Lewis

Mr. Joseph Westenkirchner

Now in his third year of coaching varsity football at Central, Mr. Westenkirchner has compiled an admirable record. The ex-pro, a former player with the Los Angeles Rams, is head coach of the baseball team and assistant line coach and trainer for the gridiron team.

Mr. Piloseno has been on Central's faculty since 1954, coaching the wrestling team to numerous championships and piloting the successful bowling team. This year's wrestling team captured third place in the state tourney and the bowling team took the first place trophy in both divisions of the city league.

Mr. Daniel Piloseno

Mr. Dennis Galayda

In Mr. Galayda's first year at Central he has taken charge of the track team and has high hopes for this year's cindermen. He was an assistant football coach under Mr. Cordiak. Mr. Galayda is also an instructor in history.

Mr. Peter Benedict

Mr. Gajdostik is a man of many duties. This year he coached the cross country team and took charge of the school bookstore. He also keeps his regular duties as a history teacher.

Mr. Benedict is now completing his second year on the Irish coaching staff. The assistant football and basketball coach is a graduate and two-year letter man of the University of Toledo, class of 1963. He teaches boys' Physical Education.

Irish GAL's Sport Athletic Prowess

New Activities Highlight Year

The GAL, Girls' Athletic League, was begun at Central in 1930. The GAL aims to develop the qualities of sportsmanship and athletic ability in girls, just as the varsity sports do for the boys.

The program includes lessons in tumbling, balance beam, table tennis, shuffleboard, basketball, and soccer in the first semester. During the second semester the girls participate in modern dancing, volleyball, archery, softball and relays.

The program rests in the very capable hands of Miss Frances Krompak and Miss Maureen Gallagher, who have initiated several new activities this year. The GAL girls have learned dance routines from Central's famed Dancin' Irish. They have also started an intramural program in basketball and tennis.

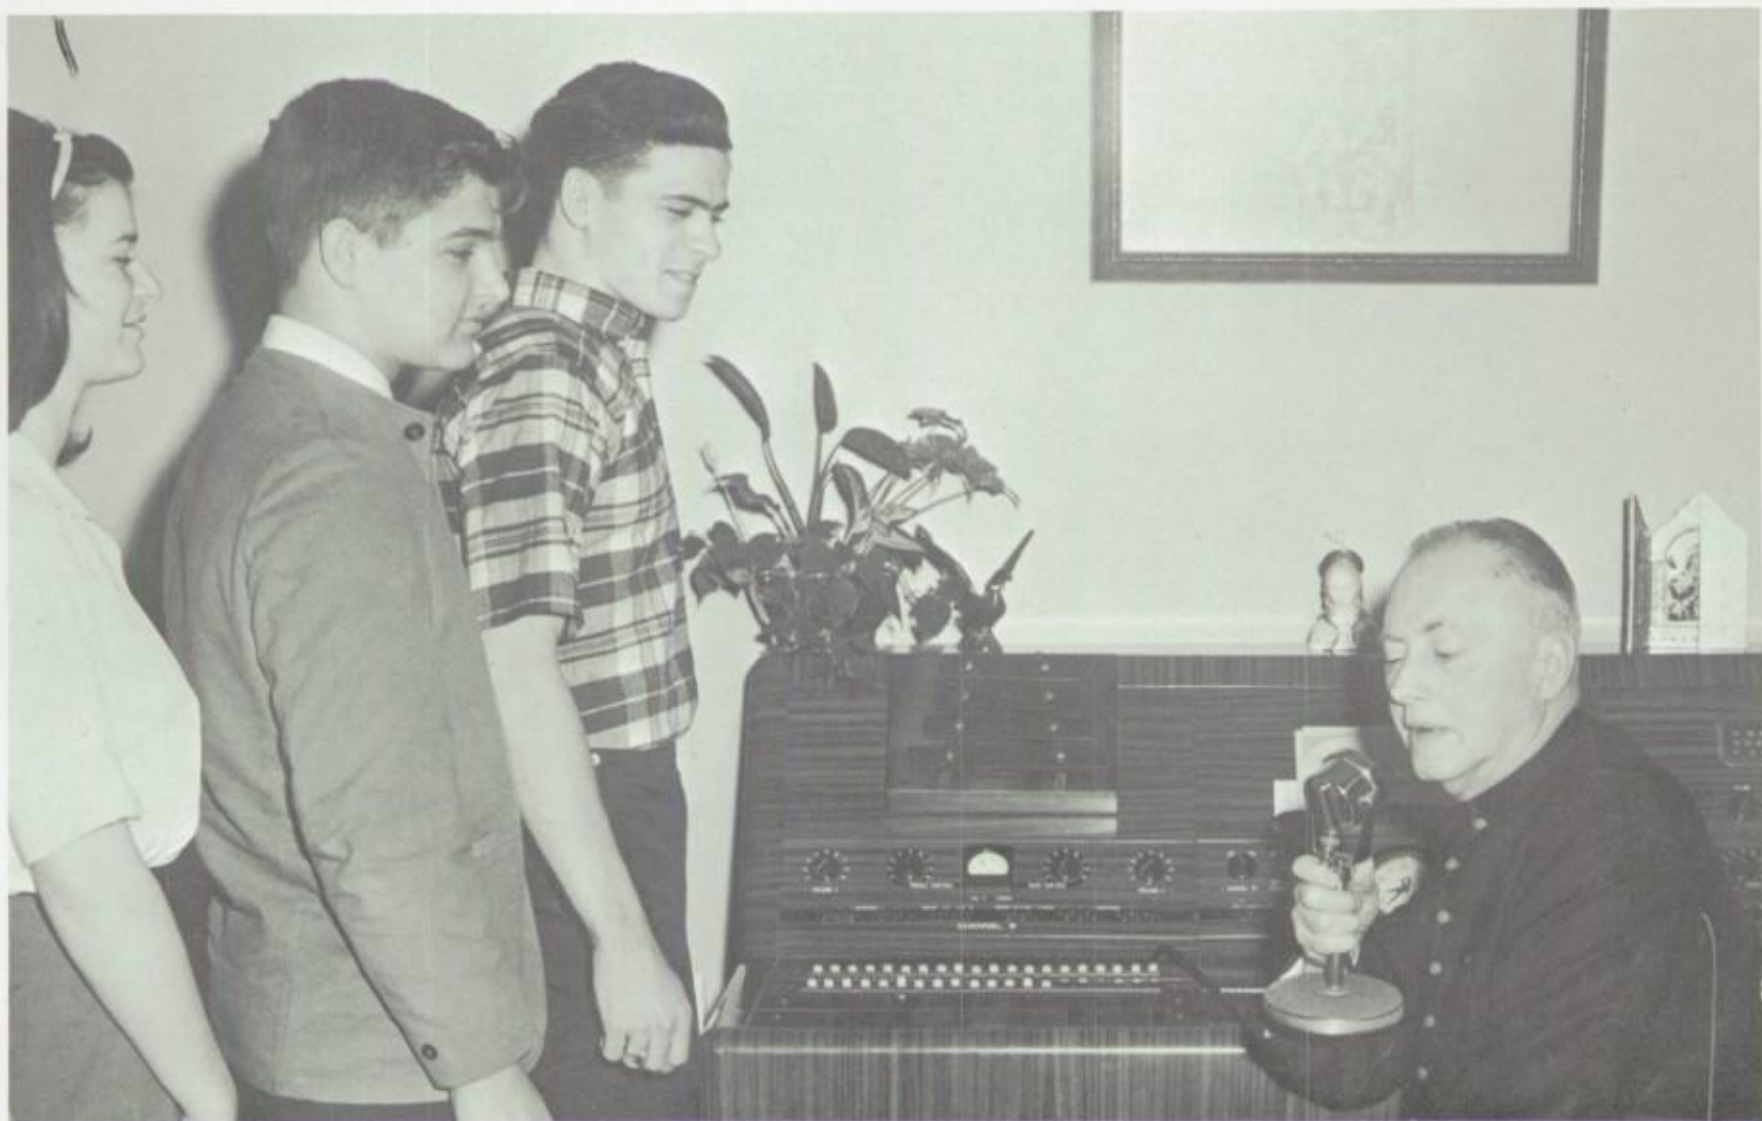

The outstanding time of the year comes at the annual GAL banquet, when one girl is chosen to receive the ALL - around Trophy for the most active sports participation.

STUDENTS

Our days are brushed by the wings of change the seasons, fall freezing into winter winter melting into spring changes in tempo cheerleaders setting the pace for the crowds in the bleachers the ringing of the bell, a signal for the change of classes from math to English to history. Changes foreseen and unexpected, announced by Monsignor Harrington each morning, affect the lives of students at Central.

Class of 1965

Esther Kosakowski
Valedictorian

Esther Kosakowski, a member of St. Agnes parish, ranks first in the senior class. She has actively participated in FNA, Latin Club, Biology Club, Math Club, Chemistry Club, National Honor Society, and Monogram Club.

Esther has competed successfully in area math contests for three years; has submitted projects to two science fairs; and has rated cum laude in the AUXILIUM LATINUM test for three years.

After graduation from Central, Esther will enter St. Vincent's Hospital School of Nursing, after which she plans to join the Navy or the Peace Corps.

Richard Olewinski maintained the highest average for boys in his class. Hailing from St. Hedwig's parish, he has been a member of the Monogram Club, National Honor Society, Latin Club, Math Club, Chemistry Club, and Chess Team.

Richard's scholastic achievements have been highlighted by two city-wide math awards, two national Latin awards, and the honor of being named "High School Science Student of the Year."

In September, Richard will continue his education at Bowling Green State University in preparation for a career in scientific research.

Richard Olewinski
Salutatorian

Mary Ellen Ignasiak
Salutatorian

Co-editor of the CENTRIC, Mary Ellen Ignasiak ranks second among the senior girls. She is a member of St. Hyacinth parish and has been active in the Glee Club, Biology Club, French Club, Eucharistic Marian, Math Club, National Honor Society, Monogram Club, Chemistry Club, and is a Student Council Commissioner.

Mary Ellen received a commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Foundation and has earned various awards for participation in Science Fairs and District Music Competition.

Leading the seniors through their last and most important year of high school are: Roy Harley, president; John O'Neill, vice president; Kathleen O'Loughlin, secretary; and Patricia Albrecht, treasurer.

Libbey's famous
"Safedge" Guarantee

... first made in 1924

In 1924 Libbey—a division of Owens-Illinois—perfected a unique fire process for safeguarding the rims of fine glassware.

They called this glassware "Safedge"—and to prove the process was as good as claimed, they backed it with the most dramatic guarantee in glass history:

"If any 'Safedge' glass becomes chipped on the rim, from any cause whatsoever, it will be replaced free of cost." This offer, of course, still stands.

Today, Libbey "Everyday Crystal" with the famous "Safedge" guarantee graces even the finest tables, yet sells at low prices.

TO LOOK FOR

LIBBEY-OWENS-FORD

a Great Name in Glass
TOLEDO 2, OHIO

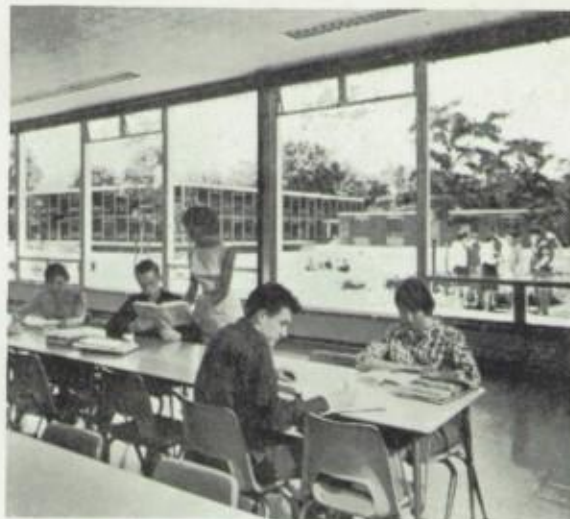

What a wonderful Open World

Have you noticed schools like this on your travels? Probably, because new buildings are springing up everywhere. They are beautiful and functional structures with large glass areas to create an "open-world" atmosphere to eliminate the feeling of being boxed in.

Wherever you live, work, shop or travel, you'll find L-O-F Glass making it more enjoyable. In homes, motels, schools and stores. In offices and factories. In hospitals and churches. In cars, buses, trains and planes.

There's an L-O-F Glass that insulates windows. It's called Thermopane® insulating glass. Another subdues sun heat and glare. L-O-F Glass that makes automobiles safer. L-O-F Glass to do a thousand things.

And when anyone needs glass, there's an authority on it nearby—your local independent L-O-F Glass Distributor or Dealer. His name is in the telephone book Yellow Pages under "Glass". Call him.

Laboratories, shops and studyrooms are separated from twin classroom buildings by a broad, central court, Ithaca Senior High School, Ithaca, N.Y. Architects: Perkins & Will, White Plains, N.Y.

Jim —

Well Not we made it — GRADUATION at last. I didn't think I'd make it, but here it is.

This year has really been great and knowing has even made it even made it greater.
We've really been through a lot, most of it good that's God. We have had some bad times though especially this last month of school. I hope everything turns out OK though.

Well college is sweeping upon us and
I probably won't see you too much.
You just better not forget me.

Off you do — and your ever sick you'll be sorry cause I'll really give you the Treatment.

I know you'll do great in college, if you Behave! So. Not I just want to tell you how much I appreciate your taking me home & taking me every place else.

God bless
God luck

P.S. Don't Forget Me!

Love Carlene
